foreword

A book of memories — a record of days, events and friends; of time and things and joys mutually shared; of work accomplished and victories won; of friendships made which the passing years will mellow and make richer. A book for now—and later years. A salute. A farewell.

Silver "A"

A Silver "A" cadet may feel with pride that he has reached the ultimate in Academy life. It is awarded by the President on the recommendation of the heads of the different departments, and the winners of this award can be said to represent the Academy's estimate of an ideal gentleman and cadet. With this award go the personal privileges that entitle the winner to check out of the Academy for shows and social functions as long as he maintains the required academic standing. We congratulate these boys for winning this highly-coveted award.

The "backbone" of the Academy is the Honor Code which consists not of fixed regulations and rules, but of honest thinking and acting on the part of each member of the cadet corps. Each year, the cadet corps and the faculty select seven cadets to be responsible for the functioning of this system. These cadets, known as the Honor Council, are purely an investigating council, inflicting no punishment, but making reports to the President of the Academy, who in turn specifies the punishment to be inflicted. The Council may, if they feel justified, request either clemency or severe punishment for the individuals involved in violations. This year's Honor Council has established itself as one of the most efficient in school history. We, the Adjutant staff, thank the Honor Council for a job well done.

A yearbook is a parcel of dreams tied up with work and worry and time. It is a repository of hopes and, in a sense, it is personal history which must be captured before it evanesces and loses itself in the mists of memory. It is also a record and, in a sense, a testament.

We, the staff of The Adjutant of 1954, present this book with a sense of rightful pride. It represents many, many days and nights of work, over eight hundred pictures taken, developed and enlarged by staff members and several hundred pages of copy and make-up layouts. This book is, in a sense, the achievement of a staff.

Again we had Mr. Manuel Olbes as the Faculty Adviser, the guiding hand who performed the tiresome and endless tasks with his usual dexterity and tactfulness. We wish to thank Mr. Olbes for the outstanding job he performed this year.

The Editorial Board of The Adjutant handled the copy and the management and performed a truly outstanding job. Last year's Adjutant won second place in the yearbook contest sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and this year's yearbook is another bid for national honors. The members of Quill and Scroll shown below all held important posts in the yearbook staff and it is due to their efforts that The Adjutant of 1954 represents the finest yearbook ever published by the cadets of Army and Navy Academy.

Dedication

We dedicate The Adjutant of 1954 to Dean Raymond C. Ede, a Christian gentleman who combines unquestionable erudition with great patience and whose kindness and forbearance have made him a respected headmaster and a beloved friend.

ADMINISTRATION

president's message

Gentlemen of the Class of 1954:

It has been my experience that periodically there passes through the Senior Gate an outstanding class among all other classes—such is the case with this, your Class of 1954.

Long ago I learned that a student body is as good as its Senior Class. I give you gentlemen of the Class of 1954 just credit for giving us the finest student body I have ever known. These are not mere words, gentlemen, it is a statement of a true fact. Since I know that you have been responsible for this, I express to you my deepest appreciation and lasting gratitude.

Your work in directing and guiding others will not end when you pass through the Senior Gate on June 2nd—rather, it will be but the beginning. You will have an opportunity in college to do a similar job, and in life, itself, you will always have the opportunity and a challenge, too, to lead and guide others in the right way of life.

I have complete faith in you and know that you will accept any challenge that comes your way in helping others to make this a better world for all of us. In so doing you will reflect credit on yourself, your parents, and your Alma Mater.

God bless you, my young friends.

Affectionately,

Col. W. C. Atkinson, President, Army and Navy Academy

W. C. Atkinson

Message to the Class of 1954

Please accept my heartiest congratulations upon your achievement.

I mainly hope you will continue on and obtain your passport to the Land of Opportunity, your college diploma. Demanding this passport is the easiest, most inexpensive and most efficient method of screening applicants for business positions.

The genius will climb over the fence, others must pass through the gate, when a passport will be required. Don't you be the one to be turned back for lack of proper credentials.

My association with you these past few years has truly been a wonderful and pleasant experience.

Mrs. Freebern joins me in wishing you a successful and prosperous future.

Phil B. Freebern

Message to the Class of 1954

In this, Democracy's darkest hour, men must all rally to the service of their country. Any man can and many have died for their country but today our nation needs men who will live for their country, men who are willing to conduct their lives in such a way that by their example Democracy will live forever. She needs men who will fight on the battlefields of their daily lives, carrying the truths they have learned into practice and living up to the ideals upon which this country was founded, refusing to compromise right and justice.

It is our fervent prayer that you shall never know the horrors of war. Our faith in you as boys and men gives the hope for peace in the future as we watch you taking your places in the large army of unsung heroes, armed with love of country, loyalty, and above all, unswerving honor.

Commandant, Junior School

To recognize high scholastic achievement, the Headmaster's office awards ribbons each month to deserving cadets. If a cadet maintains the required grade average, at the end of the month he receives the Academic Excellence ribbon for that month. The Academic Superiority ribbon is given to those cadets who win the Academic Excellence for three months in a row. At the end of the year, the cadet with the highest grade average for the entire term is awarded the President's Cup for outstanding scholastic achievement.

All of the cadets pictured above hold the Academic Superiority ribbon. Up to this date Cadet Nill is maintaining the highest average in the High School and Cadet Lloyd is leading the Lower School. The Adjutant of 1954 extends congratulations to this group and hopes that next year, those who do not graduate this year, will continue to maintain the same high standards of academic proficiency.

Major Samuel Wood
Outstanding Senior

2nd Lt. Theodore Wieseman
Most Likely to Succeed

The Corps of Cadets of Army and Navy Academy salutes the outstanding members of the graduating class and congratulates them for having received the highest acclaim their fellow class-members can bestow: the Senior Honors.

Cadet Major Sam Wood was voted "Outstanding Senior" because in all respects the class felt that he had offered leadership with integrity and justice. As Cadet Major, he held the highest cadet military rank; he was one of the outstanding members of The Adjutant Staff and President of Quill & Scroll, an excellent athlete and always a gentleman. Ted Wieseman, voted "Most Likely to Succeed," has already won a four-year scholarship to Wesleyan College and the Bank of America Achievement Award. He has also consistently topped his class academically, starred in football and basketball, and held the important post of Editor-in-Chief of The Adjutant. Bruce

Captain Bruce Fisher
Best Athlete

Captain Ike McElvany
Best Sportsman

Captain Arris Passmore
Most Popular

Fisher, voted "Best Athlete" is at home in any sport. As a football player, he won All-League honors; in basketball, wrestling, track and field, and baseball he proved his mettle and his ability and in swimming, he was chosen captain. A natural athlete, Bruce leaves an athletic record seldom matched in any school. Ike McElvany, voted "Best Sportsman" received this honor because he brought to sports a sense of fairness and doggedness, of courage and honor. His competitive spirit goes hand in hand with a spirit of unblemished sportsmanship. Arris Passmore, "Most Popular Senior" merited this award because his good-fellowship, his sense of fun and loyal companionship made him an outstanding favorite on the campus.

The Adjutant of 1954 salutes these gentlemen.

Major Guy H. Peterson
Senior Adviser

Being the adviser of a class in its senior year, is a very difficult job and it is even more difficult when the adviser has not worked with the class previous to that year. It takes a very understanding and outstanding man to succeed under these circumstances, but this year's senior class found such a man in Major Guy Peterson. Many members of the class were not well acquainted with Major Peterson when the year began, but it was not long before this affable young man had won the respect, friendship, and admiration of every member of the class. No matter what the task was, Major Peterson would go out of his way to do whatever he could to help, whether it be for the class as a whole or for any one individual. There is not a member of the entire class, who, at one time or another, has not found himself in debt to the Major for some favor. We, the Class of 1954, wish to thank our friend and adviser, Major Peterson, from the bottom of our hearts for the swell job he has done this year.

We, the Graduating Class of Nineteen hundred and fifty-four, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will these meager possessions to the members of the lower classes, and to the members of the faculty and staff.

Bennett—I leave my "cast iron" throat to Myers.

Bourne—I leave my water skis and the glory of Reno to Jim Gasho.

Brander—I will my extra pies to whoever dares to take them.

Burger—I leave Cox in charge of the Southern Army so they can beat the "damyankees" again next year.

Burke—I will my excellent French accent to Major Terry.

Cornforth—I leave California to the sea gulls; if they'll take it.

Crans—I will my silence to Pat Leahy.

DeLisle—I leave my baritone horn to Hawkins in hopes he blows it out the right end.

Drew—I leave six years at ANA for six nights in the Casbah.

Fisher—I leave my stiff neck, sore back, and blistered lower extremity to the poor saps who ride the bus next year.

Fuller—I leave without my heart, for it is in Westwood.

Galindo—I will my heavies to Jerry Burgess.

Gustafson—I leave the ambition to go to Ojai to Kenaston.

Heinz—I leave Carlsbad, as my heart beckons me to Westwood.

Henderson—I leave my ??jokes?? and coaching ability to Captain Oberly.

Lacey—I leave O.H. to the termites; if still standing.

Lane—I leave to Fuller, B. and Gardner, L., memories of Mexico and Olbes's reducing plan.

Linville—I leave my old man's pension to Wood R.

Lippincott—I leave my "school spirit" to Weber.

Mann—I will Louie all of my women problems.

McElvany—I will the band to Taylor.

Nicol—I give Spence Dryden my jazz feeling on the sax so he can learn to play the drums.

Passmore—I leave my position as President of the Stokers' Club to Wood R.

Peterson—I will the beach parties of La Jolla to Curland.

Pettett—I leave the bus a larger glove compartment, so Kenaston will not be crowded next year.

Sklar—I leave my formula for losing weight to Hillam and Mr. Olbes.

Stamoulis—I leave my feminine experiences to Butch Cox.

Telson—I will my beak to Gates.

Van Vleet—I will Bill Teagardin to Norman Gates and my curly hair to Dick Lambert.

Weaver—I leave a crippled and beaten man: Richard Chapman.

Wieseman—I leave Munster a railroad ticket to Virginia so he can see a little grass and sunshine before he dies.

Wood—I leave my baseball spirit to Coach Lawrence.

Zellers—I leave my spasticness to Mister Chace.

Major Peterson—I leave to Captain Hopkins all of my old field manuals and ROTC tests.

You know, it really feels different to be a senior. . . . Makes you feel like you are somebody. . . . And you are, too. . . . You're a senior. . . . And when that G.O. comes out, you know you'll be right up there near the top. Better get the bags unpacked, though. . . . Gee! but those bags look big. Well, it's our school now. . . . Our senior well. . . . And we're the ones going to the El Cortez for a banquet now. . . . And just wait till Hell Week. . . . Someone's really going to pay for all those swats and rotten eggs and foodless meals and sleepless nights I enjoyed last year. Well, I better get off this football gear and see if Peterson's got all the hot water again tonight. . . . We certainly have a good team this year. . . . Look at those scores—38-0, 45-0, 58-0. Darn sun's out again this Sunday, too. . . . Haven't they ever heard of rain around here? . . . Oh well, better get my coatee on and get out there and march. You say we have to practice the grand march. . . . Autumn Ball can't be here already! . . . Sure was a swell dance, though. Hey, the rings are here! . . . I've been waiting a long time for one of these. . . . Got it just in time to take home over Thanksgiving. . . . Oh, that reminds me. . . . Got to pack that bag again. Got our tree for Pearl Harbor Day already. . . . Put my shovelful of turf on, too. . . . Christmas is going to be here in no time. . . . Yep, here comes the bus from Bishops. . . . Must be dance time already. Pack up the bags. . . . We're going home for Christmas. . . . Didn't last long, did it? . . . Sure is swell to see everyone back again. . . . Maybe, "Blast" will unpack my bag for me. Well, let's see how the defending S.P.L. basketball champions are doing on the casaba court this year. . . . Look at that victory string pile up. . . . 11, 12, 13, 15, 19, 21. . . . Another trophy for the trophy case.

Have a pretty good wrestling team this year, too. . . . That boy with all the snappy come-backs almost won himself a Southern California championship. All right, time to bone up for semester exams. . . . But the year can't be half over yet. . . . It just started last September. . . . Better get to work on that prom too. At last, what we've been waiting for all year. . . . The Silver "A." . . . Gosh, even that red headed lieutenant got one. What's all that noise over in the cabin section? . . . Oh, it's just the confederates beating off another yankee sneak attack. . . . Maybe, we will have peace when everyone goes to Pasadena for the play contest. Wonder what that bright light is over in classroom 9? . . . Well, I'll be . . . look at those shiny oak leaves on Captain Peterson's collar. Raining again. . . . Must be having a formal tonight. . . . That is right, tonight is the Valentine dance. Why, we'll be going home for Spring Vacation pretty soon. . . . I'm really getting tired of packing and unpacking those bags. . . . I guess I can take it a few more times though. Better get your dates for the Spring Dance too. . . . That will be here in no time. Hey, our spring sports teams are really doing great. . . . We haven't lost to a league foe so far in track, tennis, or baseball. . . . Looks like a banner season. Sorry, can't stop now . . . got to make that annual deadline next week. . . . Whew! didn't think we were going to make it for awhile. . . . Sure glad this is over. The work is just beginning though. . . . Here comes the final exams. . . . So close and yet so far. Only one more week of school? Got to hurry or I won't make the Senior Play. . . . What a play. . . . Hams to the end! And here is the prom we worked on so long and so hard. . . . Gee, it didn't last very long. I better put on my coatee. . . . I don't want to be late for this parade. . . . Blasted thing is still as tight as ever.

Better get in there for commencement, too. . . . Want to make sure I get that diploma. Hey, it's all over and I won't see these guys very much anymore. . . . Have to say good-by to every one. . . . Good-by Ike. . . . Take it easy Pass. . . . What a swell bunch of guys! Oops! there goes Sam in the well. . . . Where did everyone go? Better go pack my bag, I guess. . . . That's funny. . . . It didn't take very long at all this time.

Here are the heirs to the Senior mantle and with this mantle go the worries, responsibilities, honors and privileges that mark the Senior Cadet. During the ensuing summer months' vacation, these young men will mature just enough to fit them for taking over the important job of being the top leaders of the Academy, and we have great confidence in these cadets for we know that they will do a fine job come next September. They have already proved some of their capabilities by staging a full season of successful social activities. One of the nicest of their parties was the Spring Dance, which was enjoyed by all the Cadets in the Academy.

Captain Hopkins is their class advisor, and he has done a truly fine job in preparing them for the serious tasks which still lie ahead of them. Brice Fuller was elected President; Gregg Kenaston, Vice-President; Walter Wyatt, Secretary; Butch Cox, Treasurer, and Bennett Curland, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Class of 1955 has a lot of undeniable talent in the many fields of Academy activities. Bob Wood and Gregg Kenaston are among the best athletes of the Academy. In the Music Department Al Phillips, Spenser Dryden and Ron Taylor are among the most talented. Two Silver "A's" were awarded to members of this class and there are, also, two Cadet Officers in the Junior Class. With this type of talent they should be able to go far next year.

ESTRELLA

This year's Sophomore Class faithfully holds up the tradition of being the noisiest class in the Academy. It seems as though the mere fact of being a Sophomore brings out all the hidden abilities a boy has within him. He is not only carefree, but he is very active in sports, and at the same time, keeps up a fine academic average. Besides all this, some of these boys are among the most popular at the Academy. We know that excellent leadership is present in this class, and when they become Seniors, we shall expect them to rank with the very best classes that have passed through the portals of the Academy.

class of 1956

Early in September, the Sophomore Class elected Mr. Richard Gronquist to be their Class Advisor. He has watched over his boys and has done an excellent job of offering them advice and help whenever needed. Jim Cole was elected President; Darryl Russell, Vice-President; Carl McElvany, Secretary; Bruce Weber, Treasurer, and Jim Heikes, Sergeant-at-Arms. It is certain that after two years have passed, the Academy is sure of having a fine Senior Class composed of these boys.

Handwritten notes:
 "The Freshmen! The ever-smiling, ever-laughing Freshmen! We never see these boys without smiles upon their faces, and their jolly laughter rings through every hall and room on the campus. But with all their care-free ways, they seem to have a real liking for athletics, and a genuine interest in the world of scholarship, or at least their averages would so suggest. With all their ability, they should prove themselves to be quite a class when they eventually reach the top; so we don't think we will be far wrong if we predict that they will make an excellent Senior Class, and now we will simply say 'Goodbye and Good Luck!'"

The Seventh Graders, under the guidance of Mr. W. F. Girouard, have made great strides this year in the Lower School Division. These boys take an active interest in everything for which they are eligible, and they follow close behind the Eighth Graders in both academics and sports. We know, therefore, that these Cadets will be well fitted to take their places as the Leaders of the Lower School when the present Eighth Graders have gone on up into the High School next Fall, and we sense that these boys will prove invaluable to the Academy life in their later years. Congratulations, Seventh Graders, on doing a swell job during this year.

Here we have the very proud sixth graders. These Cadets have just reason for their pride, too, for they are now practicing what they learned in the Fifth Grade and are doing a truly excellent job. Mr. Manuszak is the advisor of this class and, under his watchful eye and guidance, these young boys are becoming one of the best classes in the Lower School. We congratulate Mr. G. Manuszak and his fine group of cadets on doing such a grand job.

The Warrior varsity of 1954 continued along the pace set for them by previous Academy teams and emerged victorious from a majority of their games. Engaging larger teams for practice games, the Warriors fared very well and then they set out to secure the league championship for the third consecutive year, but by mid-season injuries had begun to take toll of the squad. The team, lacking depth, could not withstand such conditions and had to be content with the league's runner-up spot. This year's team had a powerful offense and was capable of scoring, either by air or by ground, from any place on the field. Much of the credit for this year's team should go to Head Coach "Shorty Lawrence" and Assistant Coach Lowell Oberly. These men worked tirelessly at the task of developing the team to its utmost potentiality as a team. Hard charging fullback, Ike McElvaney, was selected as captain of the team and Bruce Fisher, the Warrior deadeye passer, was named the team's most valuable player. The Adjutant of 1954 salutes the Warrior varsity!

This year the Warriors completely dominated the All-League Football squad and placed six men on the first team.

Right end Arnold Bennett was disabled last year after a fine showing in his sophomore year, but returned to action this year in fine style. His glue-fingered pass catching antics and sturdy defensive play were only a couple of the many reasons why he was chosen All-League end.

Holding down one tackle on the honor team was hard charging, 200-pound Keith Henderson. Although a big man, Keith was very fast on his feet and could move in any direction with remarkable speed. He was truly one of the finest tackles in the league.

Ed Peterson notched the other tackle position on the team. Ed won his honors the hard way by playing magnificent football on both offense and defense. Whenever the chips were down, Ed always came through for his teammates and his school.

Left guard Jim DeLisle proved himself an outstanding athlete by making the All-League team for the second season in a row. Jim is comparatively light for a guard, but no one is faster or has more determination than he. Jim's departure will surely leave a big gap in the Warrior line.

Halfback Ted Wieseman also repeated as an All-League choice, but at two different positions as he placed on the team as an end last year. Always a constant threat with his running ability, Ted especially sparkled on end runs.

Selected as All-League quarterback was Bruce Fisher. He was undoubtedly the finest passer in the league, throwing for seven Warrior scores in the four league games. His defensive play and signal calling were also responsible for his All-League selection and being named by the Los Angeles Examiner as the league's outstanding player.

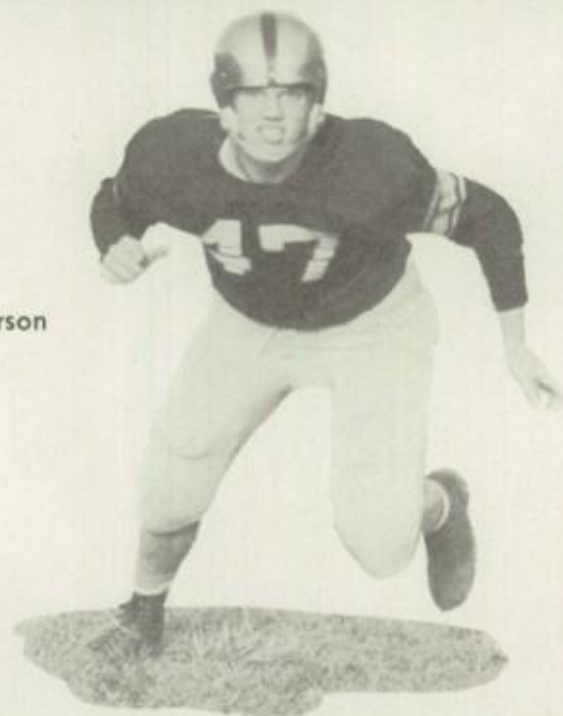

Also receiving recognition were fullback Ike McElvany, halfback Arris Passmore, and left end Rod Fuller. These players were all selected as honorable mention at their respective positions.

all-league honors

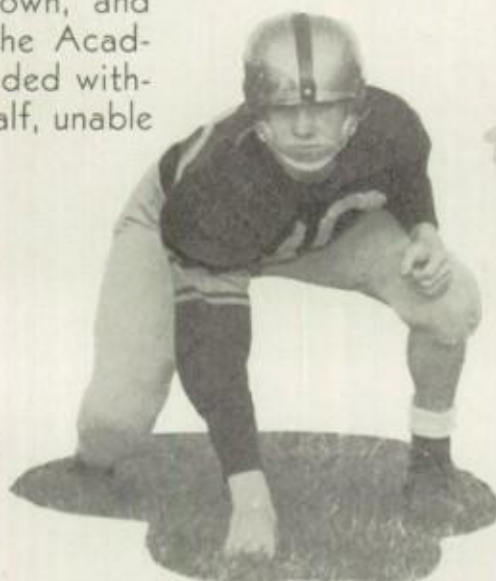

Army and Navy Academy opened their season by playing San Dieguito of the Metropolitan League. The first quarter was a see-saw battle, until Wieseman ran a punt back 47 yards to the San Dieguito 18 yard line, but the Warriors did not capitalize on the break and failed to score. Early in the second quarter, however, the San Dieguito team started to drive, and finally scored on a screen pass from 8 yards out. They failed to make the conversion though, and the score stood 6-0. When the Warriors got the ball, McElvany and Passmore reeled off good gains, Fisher passed to Fuller for a first down, and Wieseman added 4 more, but then the Academy attack bogged down. The half ended without any further scores. In the second half, unable to make any yards through the rugged Warrior line, the Mustangs finally punted. The line led by Henderson, DeLisle, Hardy and Peterson opened up the middle and the team started to roll, but the strong San Dieguito line dug in, and stopped the drive on their own 33 yard line. On the first play of the fourth period, San Dieguito caught the Warriors flat-footed on a reverse play that went 45 yards for a touchdown. This time San Dieguito made the extra point and went out in front 13-0. Late in the fourth quarter the Mustangs began to move at will against a tired Warrior team. Fisher thwarted one score when he intercepted a pass, but the Mustangs came right back and added another score to stretch their lead to 19 points. Just before the game ended, the San Dieguito team added a safety to give them a 21-0 victory.

The next week, the Warriors took on Mar Vista in the first home game of the season. In the first quarter, the play was mostly defensive, and neither team seriously threatened to score. The game was busted wide open early in the second quarter, though; when Fisher threw a beautiful pass to Rod Fuller who went into the end zone standing up. Passmore kicked the extra point, and the Academy went out in front 7-0. With the line opening the holes and Passmore, McElvany, and Wieseman running well, the Warriors moved right down the field to the twenty, and then on a reverse Wieseman hit paydirt. Frank Passmore threw to Fisher for the extra point which made the score 14-0. ANA kicked again to Mar Vista and once again the stubborn Warrior defense held the Mariners punchless. The half ended without any further scoring. Right halfback Arris Passmore started off the half by moving, behind good blocking, 40 yards down the field for a touchdown. The extra point was good. The powerful Academy juggernaut continued to roll against their Metropolitan League foe. Passmore threw to Fisher for a touchdown, but the play was called back on a clipping penalty. On the next play, Fisher passed to Fuller in the end zone for a touchdown. Once again the extra point was no good, leaving the score 26-0. In the fourth quarter, on the first play, quarterback Fisher threw to Bennett in the end zone for six points. Peterson kicked off for the Academy, and Mar Vista returned it up to the 40; however, there Ike McElvany intercepted a pass and raced all the way down the field for a touchdown. The Warriors converted, and the score stood 38-0 which was to be the final score.

After two tough practice games, the Warriors opened up their league season by traveling to Mt. Empire. Early in the game, Mt. Empire was forced to punt on fourth down, and Wieseman took the ball on the 45 yard line, and with nice blocking from the line, went all the way for a touchdown. This touchdown set the stage for what was about to come. After Passmore kicked off to Mt. Empire, Bennett recovered a fumble and set the stage for another Warrior score. Two plays later, twenty yards from the end zone, Passmore passed to Fisher for the extra point. The score now stood 13-0. Just before the end of the first quarter, Fisher hit Fuller with a pass in the end zone for another score, thus making the score at the end of the first quarter 19-0 in favor of ANA. The second quarter found that hard charging on the line by Peterson, DeLisle and Henderson forced the Mt. Empire backfield to fumble, and again Bennett came to the rescue by picking up the ball on the dead run and going all the way for another touchdown. In the second half, the coaches used the rest of the team and they continued to roll up the score. Two passes from Fisher to Bennett and Fuller respectively accounted for two of the three Warrior scores in the second half. Harold Cornforth stepped over for the final score of the game. The Warriors had emerged victorious 58-0.

On October ninth, the Academy team met Tustin High School on the Academy field. It was the team's last practice game, and Coach Lawrence picked a tough one. The Academy scored early in the game when a Tustin man fumbled one of Passmore's high kicks on the Tustin twelve yard line. Bennett, playing heads up football, grabbed the ball for the Warriors. On the very first play, Fisher faded back and threw a pass to Fuller who made a nice catch in the end zone for a touchdown. Passmore tried for the extra point, but kicked wide and the score remained 6-0 in favor of the cadets. The second quarter proved to be a defensive battle between the two teams, with neither of them making much headway, and as the half ended the score was still 6 to 6. In the third quarter, Tustin, again, marched all the way down the field for a touchdown. Again they missed the extra point, but they now led 12-6. The game ended with the score Tustin 12 and ANA 6.

The Warriors, looking for a victory after their close loss to Tustin, traveled to Fallbrook to play the game that would, in all probability, decide

On October 30, the Academy team traveled to Ramona to seek a victory and atonement for their last week's loss. The first half started off with the Warriors from Army and Navy completely dominating the play on the field. Many times the Warriors were deep in Ramona territory; only to be called back by penalties. Finally, Passmore broke away around right end on a sparkling forty-yard touchdown run. On the following play, he stepped up and booted the ball between the uprights to give the Academy a 7-0 the championship of the Southern Prep League. The Warriors, showing they had power, marched down the field on the nice runs of Passmore, Wieseman, and McElvany; and moved the ball down to the Fallbrook thirty-yard line where Fisher hit Bennett with a pass in the end zone for a touchdown. The extra point was not good. The rest of the first quarter was a see-saw battle until late in the quarter when Fallbrook started a drive which placed them on the goal line as the quarter ended. The Warriors held for three downs on the two yard line, but on fourth down, Fallbrook pushed the ball across for the score. The extra point was not good. After the kick off, the Academy was unable to sustain a drive and Fallbrook took over the ball, and on a reverse play made another touchdown. The extra point was good, and the half ended with Fallbrook leading 13-6. The second half was much like the first and midway in the 3rd quarter the Fallbrook team pushed over another TD. The game ended with a disappointed Warrior team on the short end of a 20-6 score.

lead. Late in the second quarter, Ramona broke loose from the charging line of the Warriors, and made a long run down to the Academy five yard line, and went over for a score three plays later. On the try for the extra point, Henderson broke through the line and blocked the kick. The second half turned out to be a real thriller. Ramona started a drive, but it was stopped when McElvany intercepted a pass and ran forty-five yards down the field for the Warriors' second touchdown. Once again, Arris Passmore added the all-important extra point which was to be a big factor in this game. The rest of the third period turned out to be a hard fought defensive battle. It was not until early in the fourth quarter that Ramona started to roll, and marched down the field for a score. The extra point was good, but the Warriors still led 14-13. Time after time, Ramona tried to gain on the ground and go for the winning touchdown, but the hard charging Warrior line proved to be too sturdy for the Bulldog team, and when the game ended Ramona was still futilely trying to pierce the rugged Warrior defense. The final score was 14-13 in favor of the Warriors.

The last game of the 1953 season saw injury-ridden Army and Navy Academy renew their annual rivalry with Brown Military Academy of San Diego. The game set its pattern early in the first quarter, when Jim DeLisle blocked a Brown punt, and Rod Fuller scooped it up and went the remaining ten yards for a Warrior touchdown. The extra point was not good. The Warriors scored again when Ike McElvany plunged over from two yards out. Again the Warrior eleven kicked off, and, again, they took the ball from Brown; this time, on a fumble. The Warriors drove forty yards down the field, and scored when McElvany passed fifteen yards to Bennett in the end zone to make the score 20-0. Brown futilely tried to keep the ball, but a pass interception by Bruce Fisher started another drive which ended in Passmore crossing the goal line for the score. Just before the half ended, McElvany picked up a Brown fumble and crossed the goal line for the fifth Warrior touchdown. The half ended with the Warriors leading 33-0. In the second half, Passmore went over tackle from 23 yards out for another Academy score. Wieseman brought the ball down to the Brown fifteen-yard line where Fisher skirted left end for the final touchdown of the game. At the end of the game, the scoreboard showed the Warriors on the winning end of a 45-0 score. It was truly a fine way for the Warriors to close out their 1953 football campaign.

This year's Junior Varsity team had one of the best seasons in Academy history. The baby Warrior team smashed all league competition and only met defeat at the close of the season when they were badly battered by injuries.

In the first game of the season, the Warriors took on their rivals, Brown Military Academy of Pacific Beach. The Warriors showed beyond a doubt that they were much too powerful for the boys from Brown. The powerful Academy team marched for touchdowns at will and swamped their rivals 33-0. Hart led the attack with fine running and passing. Standing out for the Academy defensively were end Jim Coleman, guard Jim Heikes, and fullback John English. Cady showed great promise by kicking three out of five extra points.

The second game in the Warriors' conquest for the league championship was played against a strong Fallbrook eleven on the Academy field. Defense marked the play early in the game and it did not look like either team would score. Finally, in the second quarter, the Warriors began to move. Surely the team ate up ground until inside the ten yard line Tony Hart, on a quarterback sneak, plunged into the end zone for the first score of the afternoon. Cady missed the conversion, and the half ended with the Academy on top by six points. Both teams battled evenly until midway in the fourth quarter when the Warriors sewed up the game by scoring a second touchdown. This time it was Doug Rainier who, after taking a Hart pass, ran twenty yards along the sidelines for a score. The game ended with the Warriors winning 13-0.

Needing but one victory to clinch the league championship, the Academy took on Ramona Junior Varsity. For one half the powerful Warrior team found themselves stymied by the boys from Ramona and could not score. The line, however, led by Ross Workman and Weber turned in an excellent performance and held the opposition punchless. In the second half, awakened by Coach George Manuszak at half time, the future champions began to play for their first touchdown of the game. Tony Hart sparked the drive by superb passing and added the score, himself, on a fine run. After this the Academy moved with comparative ease to score. Tony Hart, in a superb performance throughout the game, but the offense showed little punch at all. In the second half, the team did manage to drive for a score, but the extra point was blocked and the Warriors could not overcome the Brown lead. English and Heikes played all over the field on defense, but in the end Brown prevailed seven to six.

The team ended their season by traveling to Fallbrook for a practice game. Once again the injury ridden team could not seem to get rolling. Fallbrook, a team they had previously beaten, took advantage of this and losses suffered by injuries to roll over the Warriors 34 to 0.

The Junior Varsity in Action again, capped off two long drives by scoring on quarterback sneaks. The final score was nineteen to nothing in favor of the Academy.

With the league championship already won, the team traveled to Brown for a practice game, but there the Warriors were victims of an astounding upset. Early in the game, the Brown team struck for a sudden touchdown, the first one scored against the Warriors all season. At this point in the game, the Warriors suffered a severe blow when Rainier was forced to leave the game on injuries. The Academy defense turned

The team proved themselves to be the class of the league and Varsity Coach "Shorty" Lawrence will eagerly be awaiting to use them on the varsity team next year. Jim Heikes was selected most valuable lineman, John English was picked most valuable back, and the team elected Doug Rainier to be team captain. The Adjutant staff congratulates the league champions of 1953 and Coach George Manuszak, without whose help the championship would not have been possible, on a fine season.

Two in a row! For the second year in a row, the Warrior basketball team, under the direction of Coach Richard Gronquist, won the Southern Prep League Basketball title. The team this year has compiled an amazing record, keeping intact last year's record, and won 21 league basketball games in a row. The team was not halted until the play-offs where they lost a close game to Chula Vista of the Metropolitan League. Our gratitude goes to Ted Wieseman, the captain of the Warrior team, and to the rest of the players who brought the championship to the Academy for the second straight year. Congratulations from the Adjutant Staff of 1954!

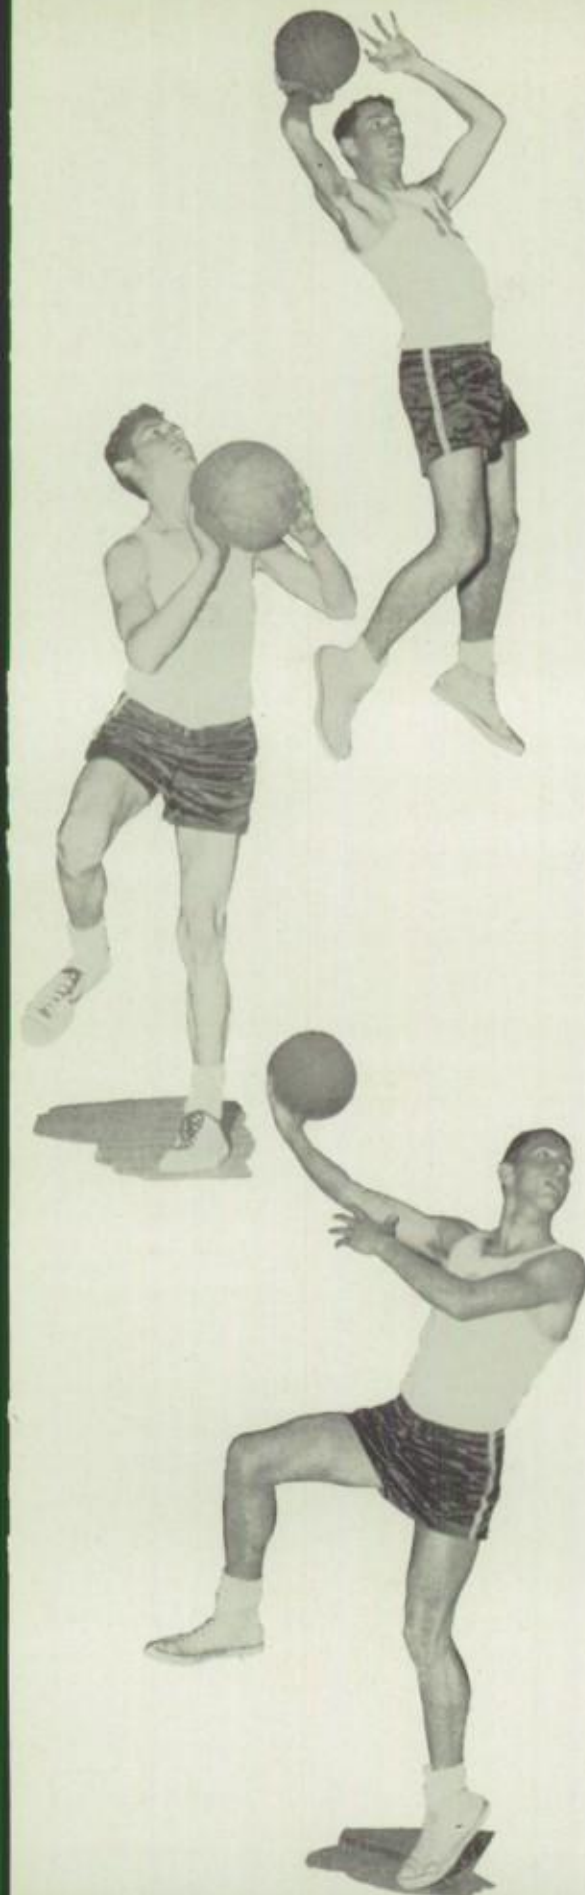

The Warriors started out the season with a practice game against the Academy's alumni. The Alumni took the lead early in the game and were leading at the end of the first half, 16-15. But in the second half the Warriors came back strong and won the game, 38-27. Sam Wood who tallied 11 points was high point man.

In the next game, the Warriors hosted San Dieguito from the Metropolitan League. The Warriors, handling the ball well, built up an early 23-12 halftime lead. San Dieguito tried to come back in the second half, but a stubborn Warrior defense stopped the Mustang bid for victory, as the Warriors went on to win the game, 42-40. Wood and Stamoulis shared high point honors for the Academy.

The third game of the season was a practice game with Capistrano, a team from a higher league. The whole team played well and at the halftime, the Warriors were in front, 26-17. Capistrano tried to fight back in the second half, and pulled up close to the Warriors, but the team held on and brought home its third straight victory of the year, 43-42. Stamoulis was high man when he pushed in 14 points. Wood was right behind with 12 points.

The Warriors next traveled to Fallbrook to compete in the annual pre-season basketball tournament sponsored by Fallbrook High School. In the first game, the Academy drew Fallbrook, and the Warriors went right to work on them by posting a 45-33 defeat on them. Wood led the procession with 12 points. In the Warriors' second game of the tournament, the team took on a tough Julian squad. The Warriors, not looking too good, got off to a bad start, and at the half were behind 18-24. The Warriors tried to come back in the second half, but coul-'n't quite make it, and so went down to defeat 39 to 36. Wood dropped in 12 points for the Academy.

The Warriors again took on Capistrano in another practice game on the Academy floor. The Academy showed its sharpness as a fast ball handling team in the game and took an early lead. As the game progressed, however, Capistrano started to show its power and at the half-time the score was 22-21, favoring the Warriors. In the second half, the Academy was hampered by the loss of forward Sam Wood, and the team couldn't get started with its high scoring forward out of the game due to an ankle injury. The game ended with the Warriors on the short end of a 40-33 score.

With Wood fully recovered from his injury and Wieseman returning to the team after being out all year with a football injury, the team was at full strength, for the first time all season, when they started their assault on league competition for their second straight championship. The first game was with Mt. Empire. By the end of the first quarter, the Academy five had compiled a strong lead, and at the half were leading 27-14. The second half saw the rest of the team enter the game and continue to build up the lead. At the end of the game, the score was 65-27, in favor of Army and Navy Academy. Stamoulis led the parade of scorers with 22 points.

The next game the team hosted Ramona in their second league encounter. The game proved to be a good one from start to finish. The score at the end of the first half, 22 to 17 in favor of the Warriors, showed that it was to be a tough game. It was not until early in the fourth quarter that the team started to pull away, and when the buzzer sounded ending the game, the score was 40-27, in favor of the Warrior team. Wieseman, the team captain, dumped in 17 to lead the attack.

Next, the Warrior hoopmen traveled to Fallbrook to meet a not too strong Fallbrook team. The Warriors, however, had trouble and had to come from behind in the third quarter to win 43-40 in a real thriller. Wood led the winning team with 12 digits.

The Basketballers next went down to play their traditional rivals, Brown Military Academy. The Warriors wasted no time in showing their intentions and handed them a 60-33 shellacking. Stamoulis topped the scoring with 16, while Bennett and Wieseman were right behind with 14 apiece.

The next game found the hoopmen taking on undefeated Julian in a battle for the league's top spot. The game was very close through the early part, and at the end of the first quarter the score was tied 13-13, but from there on it was all Academy. The team went on to win 43-32. Ted Wieseman bucketed 13 digits for the Warriors.

The Warriors started the second round by hanging a 50-28 defeat on the Mt. Empire basketball team. Sam Wood led the team in point making by dropping in 20 markers.

The Warriors, to keep their game sharp, took on the very tough St. Augustine team of San Diego. Despite the fact they were underdogs, the Warriors stayed right with the Saints in a nip and tuck first half. The third quarter found the ANA five pulling into the lead, however, and at the end of the game they had won a major 54-44 upset. Stamoulis and Wieseman led the Warrior scoring with 15 and 13 points respectively. Peterson and Bennett each contributed 10 to the Warrior cause.

The hoopmen traveled to Ramona for their next encounter, and downed them 61-42. The score at the half was 31-28. Bennett, hitting from all over the court, pumped in 22 points to lead the Warrior attack.

The varsity team next hosted Fallbrook on the Academy boards. Again the Warriors had trouble and were forced to a hard played game from start to finish. The Warriors, however, showed their championship form and won 48-39. Stamoulis, the tall Warrior forward, hit for 17 digits to lead the hoopmen.

The team, again, met their rival, Brown, and proceeded to hand them another setback. The Warriors held Brown to a low score and went on to win 44 to 27. Wieseman led in scoring with 11, as Stamoulis and Fuller threw in 10 and 9 respectively.

For the final league game of the season, the hoopmen met Julian on the opponents' court. The Warriors, taking no chances on losing their good record, went right to work on their opposing team, and won by 25 points, 50-25. Stamoulis led the scorers with 15, Wieseman and Wood followed with 10, and Peterson bucketed 9.

By winning the league championship, the Warriors became eligible to participate in the playoffs for the Southern California Championship. In the first round, however, the Warriors drew the eventual champions, Chula Vista. The Warriors turned in a sterling performance, but ran out of gas in the fourth quarter and lost 49-39.

This championship team owes its exceptional record to the untiring efforts of Coach "Dick" Gronquist who trained and sweated out game after game as he led his Warriors to an unmatched record of Southern Prep League victories. To him goes the gratitude of the squad and the Corps for a job exceptionally well done.

This year's "B" team, composed of the above nine players, rolled up a very respectable record and managed to finish fourth in the Southern Prep League.

After warmup games with strong foes, the team opened up their league schedule by beating Mt. Empire in a hard fought game. The team piled up an early lead, but lost it on a fourth quarter rally by the Mt. Empire team. At the end of the regulation time the game was tied up, but Bob Morris saved the day for the cadets when he dropped in the deciding shot in a "sudden death" overtime to give the Warriors a 28-26 win.

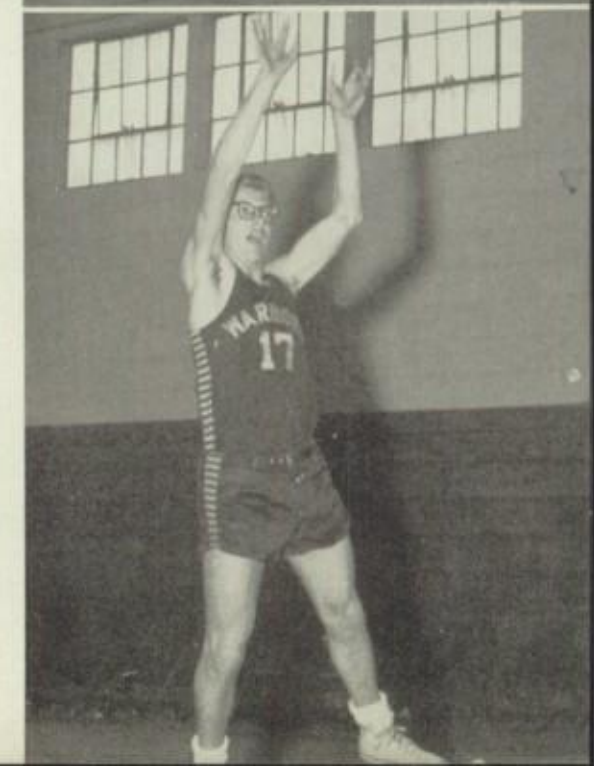

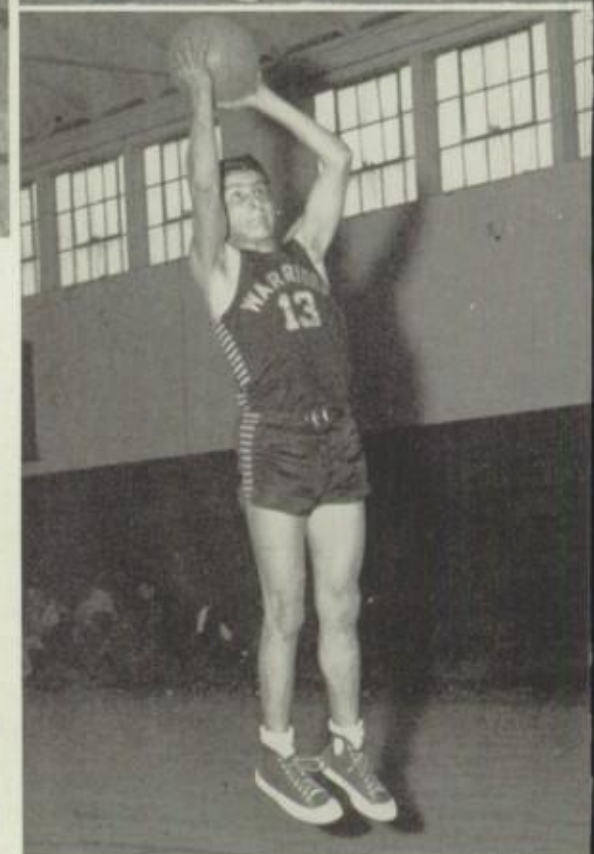

Strengthened by the addition of Les Cox from the varsity, the team bested Ramona by the score of 41-31 in their next league encounter. Cox scored fourteen points on his deadly set shot, while Zellers scored ten.

The next game against Fallbrook was important to the Warriors as Fallbrook was the only other unbeaten team in the league. The first quarter, however, turned into a nightmare for the Warriors, though, and they fell behind 12-2. After that, they steadily moved up on the Indians, but fell short in the final seconds to lose 42-36.

Despite a twenty-four point performance by Cox, the Warriors were upset in their next start by a mediocre Brown team. The final score was 53-48.

In the next game, the Warriors met a powerful Julian team, that was on their way to a league championship, and lost by a score of 45-18.

"b" basketball

The following Friday, the team traveled to Mt. Empire. Les Cox poured twenty-four points through the hoop, and the team won, 37-30.

The next game, played with Ramona, was very close, but the Warriors lost to a vastly improved Ramona team by the score of 35-30. Cox led the scoring with 14 points and was followed by Zellers who scored 11.

Once again, Fallbrook tiffed the Academy five 48-44, but it took the Indians an extra period to do it. Rafferty turned in an outstanding performance, scoring nineteen points to lead the Warrior scoring.

Seeking revenge for an earlier upset by their rivals, Brown, the little Warriors turned in an outstanding performance and crushed the Brown cadets 47-33. Zellers scored sixteen for the winners.

Julian crushed the Warriors in the final game, despite an excellent performance by Gower defensively and the offensive play of Connor and Zellers.

The team, which finished fourth, placed Cox on the All-League team and received two honorable mentions which went to Zellers and Rafferty. The boys have profited much by this year's experience and should provide excellent material for Coach Gronquist to build his next year's varsity on. Some players like Richard Miller and Phil Fricker were playing basketball for the first time and should develop into fine ball-players next year. The Adjutant congratulates Coach Gronquist and his fine "B" squad of 1954.

Although the C team didn't win many games this year, the fight, spirit, and will to win were certainly there. In several games, they came as close to winning as it possible and still not win, and in none of their games did they ever stop trying or give up.

The season was really a success, as the little Warriors came through to win the important games, in beating Brown twice and getting by Oceanside.

The team's outstanding player and high point man was Bob Gady who ended the season with 57 points to his credit.

The Southern Prep League recognized the superiority of the Warrior basketball team and selected three cadets to the All League first five.

Picked to one of the positions was left forward Sam Wood who was one of the top all around players in the league. Sam, who is only 5:9, was adept at every phase of the game, even rebounding. He was especially accurate from the side where he dropped in soft one-handed push shots with amazing regularity. Above all, Sam was always cool as ice and could always be depended on in the clutch.

Nyal Stamoulis, the Warriors big 6:5 center, was selected to the honor team for the second season in a row. Through his towering height he dominated all backboard play and proved to be a valuable asset to the Warriors; moreover, his 126 points in league play were tops for the team. Nyal had an early season slump, but by seasons close he was hitting with his old consistency, much to the dismay of the other S.P.L. teams. Coach Gronquist will sorely miss his big center next year.

Guard Ted Wieseman picked up the third position on the All League team. Ted, who only stands 5:8, scored 108 points in league play to finish right behind Stamoulis in team scoring for league play. Most of his points were scored on long two-handed set shots and driving lay-ups. Ted also was a fine ball handler and one of the top floormen in the league.

The remaining two members of the Warriors' starting quintet, Ed Peterson and Arnold Bennett, were also recognized for their fine play and were given honorable mention on the All League team.

This year's wrestling team, under the excellent coaching of Coach Oberly, did a great job, even though there were only four returning lettermen from last year's team. Though the team ended the season with a four win, four loss dual meet record, they qualified six boys for the S.C.I.F. Championships, placed second in the County Wrestling League, and placed four men on the all County Wrestling Team.

The first real test of the matmen's ability was the Vocational Invitational Tournament, held on Dec. 5. The team came out very well with Henderson 190 lbs. and Herrera 112 lbs., taking first places, while Gustafson J. 95 lbs., Fisher 145 lbs., McElvany 165 lbs., and Burgess, Heavyweight, took second-place trophies.

In their first dual meet the Warriors took on Rancho Del Campo and defeated them 33-25. Those boys who came through with pins were Jimenez, Herrera, Gasho, Fisher, Baar, and Henderson. While McElvany outpointed his opponent for the remaining three points.

In the next dual meet a very strong San Diego Vocational team beat the Warriors by the score of 40-15. The Warrior' points were won by Jimenez and Drew, who each got five points, and by English and Henderson who got three and two points respectively.

On the 29th of Jan. the Warriors traveled to Escondido where they were defeated 37-16. The Cadets points were collected by Drew, Herrera, Fisher, McElvany and Henderson.

The Academy next played host to Rancho Del Campo in the first match to be wrestled on the Academy's new mat. The meet ended with a decisive 34-18 victory for the Cadets. Gustafson, Heikes, Marshall, Gamble, Fisher, McElvany, English, and Henderson all figured in the scoring.

The Warriors didn't fare too well against Kearny in the next meet as the Kearny matmen trounced the Cadets 43-8. The only Cadets who came through against the much larger school were McElvany and Herrera.

In the second encounter with Vocational, the Warriors again met defeat. This time by a 40-16 count. The point winners for the Academy were Fisher, McElvany, Henderson and Bill Creech, a newcomer to the team.

The Academy next hosted Escondido and defeated them 27-23 with Jerry Burgess scoring the deciding win. Others who came through were Gustafson, Herrera, Heikes, Fisher, McElvany, and Henderson.

Helix was the last team to be met in dual meets this year, and the Warriors defeated them handily by a 32-13 score. Gustafson, Creech, Herrera, Drew, Fisher, McElvany, Henderson, and Burgess all walked off with victories.

On March 5th the S.C.I.F. District Tournament was held, and the Academy qualified six boys for the S.C.I.F. championships. These were Creech, 103 lbs.; Herrera, 112 lbs.; Heikes, 127 lbs.; Fisher, 145 lbs.; McElvany, 165 lbs.; Henderson, 185 lbs.; and Burgess, heavyweight. The only boy who took any honors at the finals, however, was Henderson, who took a second in the 185 lbs. class.

At the end of the season, four were appointed to the "All-League" County Wrestling team. These were Herrera at 112 and 120 lbs., with a record of nine wins and two losses; Fisher at 145 lbs., with a season record of nine wins, six losses, and one draw; McElvany at 165 lbs., supporting a ten wins four loss record, and Henderson, who finished the year with a thirteen win and three loss record.

The Adjutant salutes the boys on this year's wrestling team for a job well done.

This year as the annual goes to press, the baseball season has not yet been completed, but the players and the coach both express the hope they will have a good season. Coach Lawrence has spent his time on fundamentals, and has shaped the team into a fine, hustling baseball group.

With six lettermen back from last year's team, Coach Lawrence has put a formidable line-up on the field. The outfielders are Ike McElvany in left field, Rod Fuller in centerfield, John Gower in right field, and Elliot Raffety in reserve. The pitching staff of the Warriors is composed of Butch Cox, Sam Wood and Bruce Fisher. Jimmy DeLisle has been bearing the brunt of the catching load, but is ably backed up by Keith Henderson. The infield is composed of Wood on first, Borquez on second, Fisher at shortstop, and Wieseman at third base. Cox, when not pitching, also plays in the infield, and Fred Heinz has seen action here, also.

The Warriors started off the season with a practice game with San Dieguito, and proceed to hand them a 10-6 setback. Wieseman was the big stick in the game, hitting a triple and a single in three times at bat.

Three game shots showing L. Borquez, R. Fuller and T. Wieseman in action.

The next game, the Warriors hosted Mt. Empire in our first league game. Wood was on the mound for the Warriors. The team wasted no time in getting into the lead, and picked up a run in the second. From there on, they were never touched as they went on to win 10-2. The big hitters in the game were DeLisle and McElvany, who both collected two hits apiece.

The Warriors second league encounter was with Ramona on the Academy field. Wood and Borquez, with two hits apiece, led the team to a six to four victory.

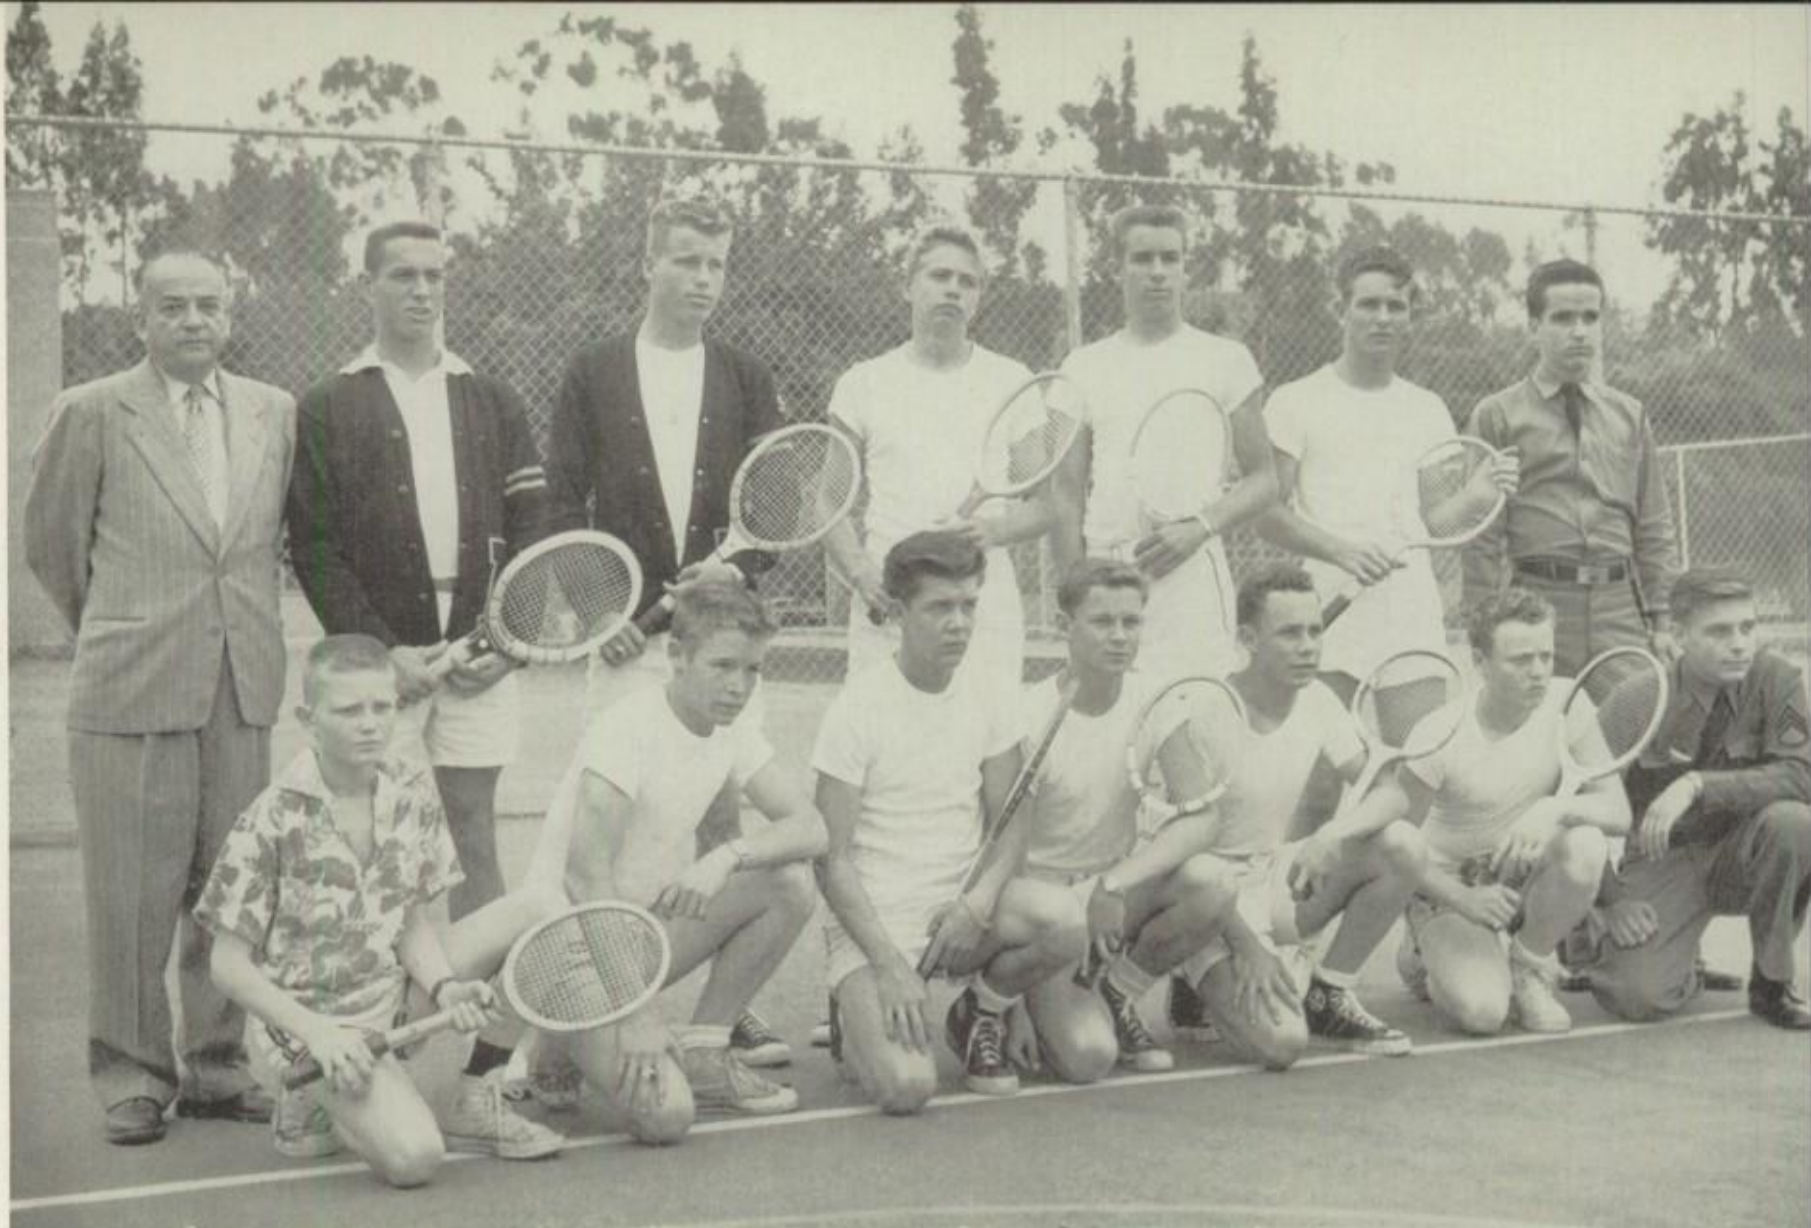

The Warriors traveled to Fallbrook for their next league game. Cox started on the mound for the Warriors. The team on the whole looked poor and played below their par in dropping the game 11-4 for their worst defeat of the season. The big hit for the Warriors was a homerun by Fisher in the second inning. McElvany, also, came through with two safeties.

We of the Adjutant would like to wish Coach Lawrence and the players the best of luck in their remaining games.

We go to press with the Academy tennis team facing six more matches, four league matches against Julian, Brown and Fallbrook, and two non-league encounters against Webb School and Oceanside High School. It is impossible to predict whether this year's team will match the 1953 aggregation that won the league championship.

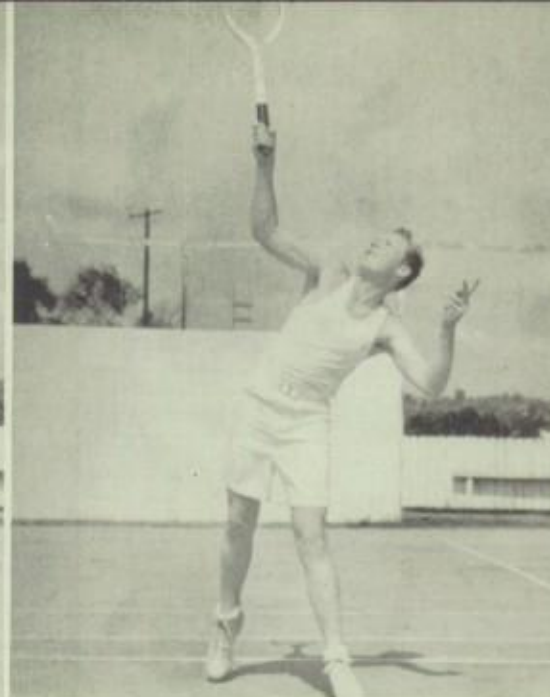

Coach Manuel Olbes had almost a complete job of rebuilding because only two players, Team Captain Reid Gustafson and Greg Kenaston, remained from last year's championship team. Around these two returning lettermen, Coach Olbes deployed his strength for maximum effect while at the same time bringing up an array of freshmen and sophomore players who will certainly render a good account of themselves in the next two and three years. Kenaston and Gustafson did an excellent job of helping Coach Olbes train the new players and Team Manager Edwin Brown did his job very satisfactorily.

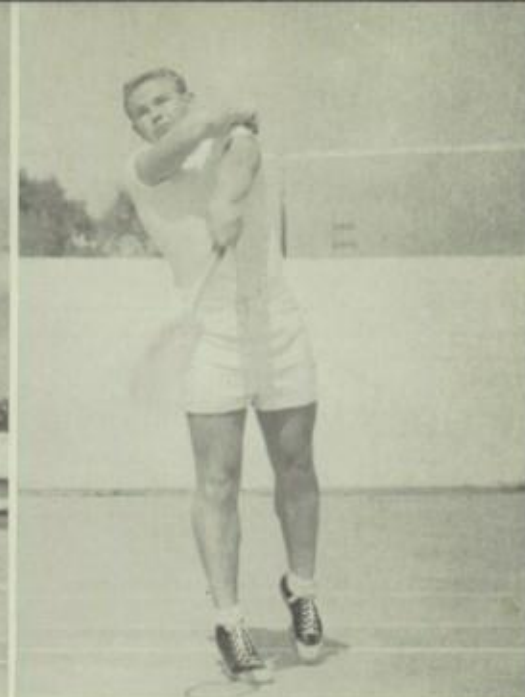

J. Heikes

R. Miller

F. Brander

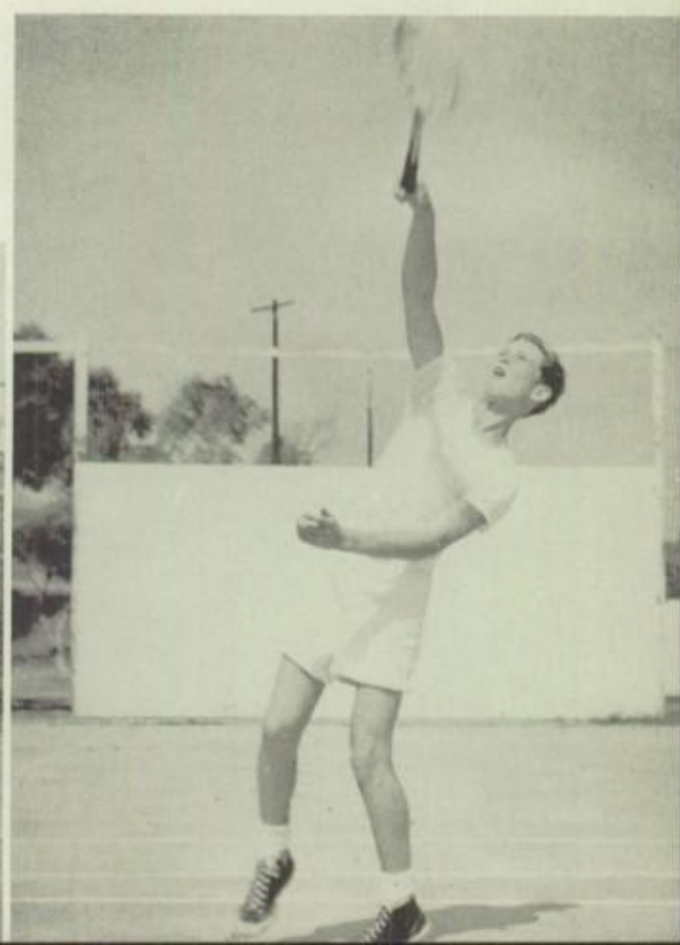

D. Bourne

Of the new players joining the varsity this year, Carl Morris has already contributed his share of victories and will be playing like a veteran before the season is over. Jim Heikes is a fighting player who will never concede a point and Frank Brander showed surprising improvement after only a few weeks' play. Doug Bourne, a senior and a "lefty," also added his strength to a team that showed progressive strength as the season progressed. Three new players, Lambert, Miller, and Munster, have the advantage of height and reach and with this year's seasoning should prove valuable additions for the coming years. D. Russell, K. Nill and J. Gustafson are also coming along satisfactorily. With so many freshmen and sophomores in this year's team, the Academy should have a strong aggregation in the years to come.

varsity track league champions

This year's Warrior track team beat all opposition in the League Meet and emerged victorious to capture the Southern Prep Track Championship for the second time in three years. They established themselves as one of the finest thinclad teams ever to represent the Academy.

Through the help of coaches Gronquist and Oberly, the track team has formed into a fine team with many consistent winners. Those who have added points to the Academy score are: Peterson and Fisher in the high hurdles; Stamoulis, Fuller, and Kenaston in the 100; Bennett and

Burger in the 440; Heinz in the 880; McElvany and Weaver in the mile; Peterson and Henderson in the shot put; Fisher in the pole vault; Wood, Bennett, and Gustafson in the broad jump; Stamoulis, Bennett, Kenaston, and Fuller in the 220; Peterson and Fisher in the high jump; Kenaston and Burger in the low hurdles; and Stamoulis, Fuller, Bennett, and Kenaston in the relay.

The first meet of the season the Warriors traveled to Brown for a triangular meet with Mountain Empire and Brown. The Warriors walked away with an easy victory. The score was ANA 76; Mt. Empire 27½ and Brown 13½. Stamoulis, Burger, and Kenaston swept the 100 for the Warriors, while Stamoulis, Bennett, and Gustafson made another sweep in the 220. Other winners were Bennett in the 440, Heinz in the 880, Kenaston in the low hurdles, McElvaney in the mile, Peterson in the high jump, and Wood in the broad jump. The relay team, also, added another first to the Warrior point column.

The next meet was another triangular affair, but this time the Warriors opponents were Rancho del Campo and Mt. Empire. The big winners were Stamoulis and Bennett who took double wins in their respective fields which were the 100 and 220 for Stamoulis and the 440 and broad jump for Bennett. Steadies Heinz, Peterson, and McElvaney won the 880, high jump, and mile respectively. Fisher cleared 10 feet to take the pole vault and once again, the Warriors' crack relay team left the field far behind. The Warriors rolled up 72 points to Mt. Empire's 29 1/2 and Rancho del Campo's 23 1/2.

Returning from Easter vacation the Warriors found they could not readily round into shape and were upset by Fallbrook in a dual meet. Undefeated Nyal Stamoulis again led the Warriors and easily took his specialties, the 100 and 220. Bennett stepped a fast 440 and kept intact his unbeaten record in that event, and Kenaston finished in a dead heat with Fallbrook's low hurdler in that event. Peterson finally showed his winning form of last year, and outclassed the field in the high hurdles. In the relay, the team had troubles in exchanging the baton, and were upset by Fallbrook's team in very poor time. The final score was ANA 48 to Fallbrook's 56.

In order to redeem themselves for their loss earlier in the week, the Warriors were in tip-top shape when they traveled to Brown to meet Ramona and Brown in another triangular meet. The team easily outclassed Ramona which had already beaten Fallbrook and went on to win the meet; ANA 81, Ramona 41, and Brown 2. Big Nyal Stamoulis swept three events, the 100, the 220, and the broad jump in a good leap of 19/11. Fisher, also, won two events by taking the pole vault and upsetting team mate Ed Peterson to win the high hurdles. Peterson came through with a win in the high jump, and Heinz, after losing a hard run race at Fallbrook, stepped off a winning 880 in good time. Greg Kenaston won the low hurdles for the last Academy individual win, as the 440 was disqualified on technicalities. The Academy won the relay easily.

The Warriors next competed in the Vista Relays at Vista High School. The sprint medley team, composed of Bennett in the 440, Stamoulis in the 220, Fuller in the 110, and Molhook in the 110, broke the meet record for the event, but were nosed out by an outstanding Vista team that also broke the meet record. The mile relay team of Chapman, Heinz, Fuller, and Burger finished fifth and the 440 team of Bennett, Stamoulis, Molhook, and Fuller finished fourth. Individually, Nyal Stamoulis placed fifth in the 100-yard dash.

The meet that finally decided the championship was held in two sections: the preliminaries at Camp Pendleton on May 5 and the finals at Fallbrook on May 7. The Academy garnered a total of 73 points to Fallbrook's 64 points, Ramona's 21, Mt. Empire's 13, and Brown's 0. Despite the fact that this was a team victory, the following players were outstanding: N. Stamoulis who won first place in the 100-yd. and the 220-yd.; Arnold Bennett copped the 440; Rod Fuller won the broad jump, and the rest of the powerful Warrior team won second, third, and fourth places in almost all other events and added to the team total. Army and Navy emerged with the championship after this meet.

The Adjutant congratulates Coach Dick Gronquist and Coach Lowell Oberly for their magnificent coaching. This is the second year that these coaches have won the highest honors in the league for the Army and Navy Academy.

Although the B's were not deep in man power, as not too many boys turned out for the team, Coaches Oberly and Gronquist put together a very fine team. Most of the boys were running three and four events to make up for the deficit of number but the ones who are out are excellent performers and it is only this lack of depth that keeps them from being a contender for the League championship.

The big winners for the B's are Doug Raineir and Kirk Molhook each who have lost once all year. Raineir remains undefeated in the high hurdles and has lost only one time in the low hurdles. Molhook whose specialities are the 100 and high jump has not lost all year in the high jump, and has only lost once in the 100 yard dash. Another outstanding member of the team is Fowler who has beaten all competition in the shot put. Other winners are Gower in the broad jump and Allen, who just joined the team, in the pole vault.

This years C team is the best team that the Academy has put on the field in many years. They have run roughshod over all league competition, and are overwhelming favorites to win the league championship for the Academy, on the day of the league meet.

The C team has left no doubt in the minds of everyone concerned as to the outcome of the league meet. In their first meet they defeated Mt. Empire and Brown by the score of 59 to 22 to 8, respectively. The next meet was a triangular meet with Rancho del Campo and Mt. Empire and the Warriors came out on top with the team getting 42 points, Campo 31, and Mt. Empire 17. In a dual meet with Fallbrook the team continued to win and rolled over Fallbrook 46 to 30. In the last meet before the league meet, the team met and defeated Ramona and Brown by the score of 52 to 24 to 6.

The constant winners for the team were McBride and Obenshain in the hundred; Cady in the broad jump and low hurdles; David Chapman in the 600; Don Leahy in the pole vault; and Webb in the high jump. The Adjutant staff commends the C's on the fine record they have compiled for themselves and wishes them luck when they travel to Fallbrook in quest of the League Championship.

Above is a picture of the Warrior swimming team. We expect fine things of them again this year as they have done in the past. With the whole Pacific Ocean to swim in, it's no wonder the Warrior swimmers do so well. This year's team will be built around returning men Greg Kenaston, Arris Passmore, Rod Fuller, John Drew, Joe Burger, and a promising group of new men led by Robert Wood and Kirk Molhook.

The swimming meets have not yet taken place, and we must go to press before they do, so we want to wish the best of luck to our swimmers.

This year, the lower school sports program, again, offered fine competition and participation in sports for all of the students.

In the fall, Coaches Moses and Girourd fielded a six-man touch football team, that played against other elementary schools in this area. Among its games, the team twice beat Carlsbad Elementary School and lost a heartbreaking 19-18 decision to the Oceanside Elementary School. Halfback John Cota, who crossed the goal line seven times, led the Warrior offense. Other players in the backfield were team captain Robin Durham and Joe Altommarino, while the line was composed of Rosea, Hart, and Ottaway. The team was, also greatly helped by Cone, Lloyd M., Young, Bird, Butler, Warrick, and Hart.

The basketball team played both surrounding elementary schools and high school "D" teams. The team was composed of playmaker Veale and Macklis at guards, deadeye Gene Little and Ottaway at forwards, and high point man Roseta at center. Other scorers were Willoughby, Young, Robinson, McAboy, Cone, Canelos, Brown, and Altommarino. Numbered among their victims were Carlsbad, Fallbrook "D's," Coronado "D's," and the Academy "C's." Not only did these boys roll up an impressive record, but they also displayed outstanding sportsmanship, and could always be found in the gym, devoting their spare time to improving themselves. With the ability and attitude that these boys have, the Adjutant Staff can not help but to predict another basketball championship for ANA in the near future.

Again this year, the lower school has fielded a crack softball team. Although they have played only one game as we go to press, we know they will go far this season, as that game was a very impressive 15-11 win over Carlsbad. For the team, Ottaway does the catching and McAboy the pitching. Around the infield they have Roseta at first, Altommarino on second, Cone at third, and Clark holding down shortstop. The outfielders are Abbott, Nelson, and Yeale.

A new sport, track, coached by Mister DuCote, has been added to the program this year. The "A" team is led by Macklis in the hurdles, Hart in the broad jump, and Cota in the shot put. Other team members are Porter, Roseta, Varley, and Warrick. The B's are led by Bird and Norris in the dashes, Ottaway and Ingram in the high jump, Cone in the shot put, and its relay team of Norris, Nelson, Butler, and Bird.

The Adjutant Staff, also, would like to praise the fine work of Coaches Moses, Girouard, and DuCote.

Dear Diary:

Nothing much happened today, Diary. Just the usual run-of-the-mill day. The bugler was a little late, though, and didn't blow reveille until 6:30. Rolled over and started to go back to sleep, but I didn't stay there long. My roommate and those jokers next door decided if they didn't feel like sleeping, no one did, so I got to mess in plenty of time this morning. Breakfast sure tasted good. Ma and Dick served us nice, hot "mung" and toast. After breakfast, we went back to the room and worked extra hard getting it ready for inspection, as we have had 3's for two days in a row now. We got a two today. Classes were about the same this morning, except that Coach gave us a test. I wish he wouldn't spring those surprise tests on us like that. After classes, we had to go out for our daily drill period. I think that I am finally getting the hang of those new M-1's, as I didn't catch my fingers in the bolt all day. After drill finally ended, we went back to the room and had our daily "bull session." It took me over five minutes to clean up the room after all of those guys left for second mess.

The members of the Warrior Staff have done a fine job publishing the monthly newspaper of the Campus. The Warrior, like the Adjutant, requires work done during spare moments and needs advertising to put the paper out. This year the man with the burden is Captain Guy H. Peterson, who is in his first year as the Advisor to the paper Staff. Captain Peterson has devoted much of his spare time to putting out the paper and deserves high commendation for the fine job he has done. The Managing Editor of the paper is Greg Kenaston, Associate Editor—Bennett Curland. On the rewrite staff is Walter Wyatt and Guy Peto, Sports Editors were Jim Heikes and Bill Munster, Business Manager—Berkley Jackson, Advertising, N. Gates. Gates and Jackson also make up the cartoons for the paper. Photographer—Tec Crans, Masque & Wig—Dave Goodrich, Social—George Kohler, Music—Spencer Dryden, Military—Cornforth, Altamirano, and Mike Lloyd, Tattler—Butch Cox, Reporter-at-Large—Darrell Russell, Make-Up—Brice Fuller. The Warrior is used as the training ground for those who are about to fall heir to the Adjutant next year. The paper is composed almost exclusively of Juniors.

Some of the boys on the Staff have done such an outstanding job in their department that they have earned themselves the high distinction of becoming members in the Quill & Scroll honorary society for High Schools, which is largely comprised of members of the Adjutant Staff who have previously earned this rating. The experience these boys receive on the paper will undoubtedly prove helpful to them in years to come. We hope that they will produce a fine yearbook for the year coming up. Good Luck.

Tomorrow, I'm going to suggest we have our "bull session" next door, but it will probably end up here, anyway. For lunch, we had sandwiches and cottage cheese, which we haven't had for ages. Strolled over for mail call, but today was my unlucky day, as I received no letters. Today being Wednesday, we had our chapel in the gym, as usual. The Colonel was away on his trip to the east, so the Dean talked to us of our future plans and told us about colleges. After that, I went to my afternoon classes, and did they ever drag on today. Finally, however, they ended, so I walked back to the room, grabbed my track togs, and went out to the field. Had a real good workout today, but I stayed out too long and didn't get any hot water when I went in to take my shower. After mess, we all went into my room until CQ. Had a lot of work to do tonight, so I didn't seem to mind CQ as much as usual. Roommate must be sick, as he actually volunteered to go down to the canteen for me tonight. Well, Diary, they are blowing taps now, so Captain Trainer will be over here any minute now to make sure we have our lights out. I guess that I better get them off, then, and say goodbye to another day here at "Old ANA."

The Lettermen's Club this year is one of the most influential clubs on the campus. Prior to this year the Lettermen's Club has not really functioned as a club, but this year, under the excellent leadership of Coach Lowell Oberly, the club has reached great heights in achievements.

The club, this year, saw the U.C.L.A.-U.S.C. football game, and an excellent exhibition of basketball by the Globetrotters. They have also given a dance, which was enjoyed by the entire battalion. Also, this year for the first time, the club is allowed to wear the open-fronted letterman's sweater to all formations.

The officers of the club are: President, I. McElvany; Vice-President, S. Wood; Sec., T. Wieseman; Treas., A. Bennett; and Sgt. at Arms, B. Fisher. These officers have done a great job in helping Coach Oberly organize the club.

music department

The Concert Band of the Academy is the second largest one in the school, and its members are taken from the Military Band. This band puts on several programs during the year, plays on Parents' Day and during Commencement Week. Due to the variety of music undertaken, the members of this band receive a well-rounded musical education while at the Academy.

This band is under the baton of Captain Albert Polhamus and Cadet Tec Crans, Student Director. Aiding "Captain Al" are four well-experienced teachers in the field of music, namely: Mr. Ralph Streano, Mr. Lloyd Bader, Mr. Lee Hamilton and Mr. Eugene Price.

The Pasadena Dance Band, another division of the Music Department, is one of the best-liked on the Campus.

This band is the one that travels to Pasadena during the spring of the year to play as the official band of the Pasadena Playhouse Association at the One-Act Play Contest. The band has been going to this event for the past eighteen years, and even derives the name from the city of Pasadena. While there, the cadets are often asked to play at various high schools and have always received much applause.

As in the past, the Pasadena Band is still under the able direction of Captain Albert Polhamus.

Individual practice is what makes a band, and Captain Polhamus devotes his day to helping his students master the more difficult passages which they can't learn completely during a rehearsal. Pictured above is the woodwind section going through a selection with "Capt. Al."

A well-trained group of music teachers aid Captain Polhamus in the instruction of the Cadets in the band.

Helping out with the Bugle Corps this year, we have Mr. Lloyd Bader, who is accustomed to handling young people, as he also has a small band of his own.

Mr. Ralph Streano, who teaches the clarinet and other woodwinds, has been with the Academy a number of years.

The percussion section, always a difficult one to instruct, has been under the able direction of Mr. Leo Hamilton.

The piano students of this year have been privileged to study under Mr. Eugene Price.

The Academy had an addition made to it this year, namely "The Glee Club," which has been under the direction of Mrs. Guy Peterson, who is well-versed in the art of singing.

In past years the school has frequently tried to organize a glee club, but did not often succeed; however, this changed with the coming of Mrs. Peterson, for the cadets seemed to flock to her and everybody wanted to sing.

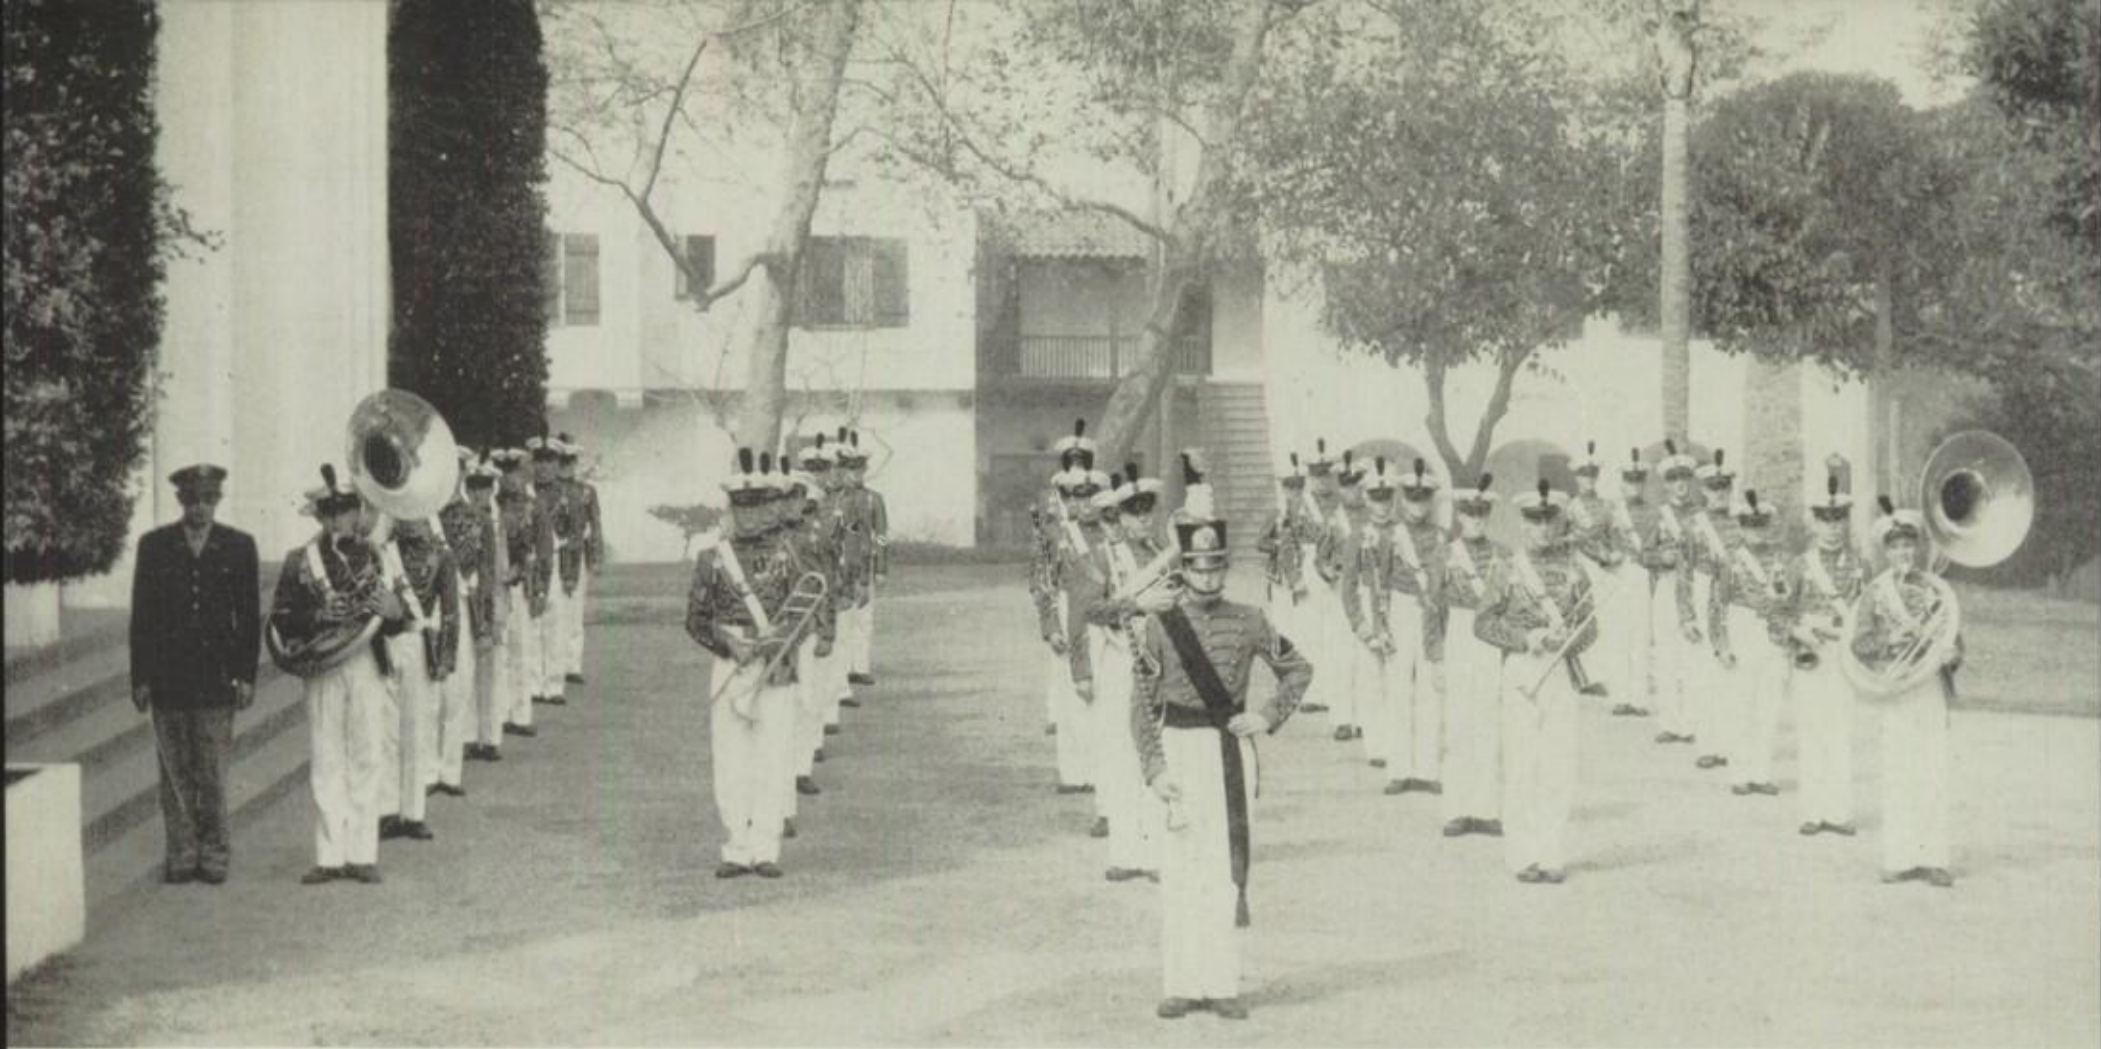

This year the group has put on a variety of programs, with selections ranging from World War I music to Christmas carols.

The Academy owes a debt of thanks to Mrs. Peterson and her fine singers for doing such a splendid job throughout the year.

Mrs. G. Peterson and upper school Glee Club

Mrs. G. Peterson and lower school Glee Club

The Military Band, under the direction of Captain Albert Polhamus, formed in front of the Administration Bldg.

Under the guidance of Captain Polhamus and Sgt. Dick Hammond, the drum major, the Military Band swung into step again this year and put on splendid performances at each parade. Besides marching in these parades, this band plays for each evening retreat formation and enters the May Time Band Review at National City each spring. In the past two years the A.N.A. band has come home with top honors in this event, and we fully expect them to give a repeat performance this year also.

The Band was very happy to have been able to move into the new reconstructed band room this fall. Instead of having to practice on the stage in the gym, as it did heretofore, it can now rehearse in that fine sound-proof room, and the members also have the use of the new individual practice rooms. All of which has been a great help to "Captain Al" in turning out a really first-class band.

masque and wig

Mrs. Ruby Hays

Each year the Masque and Wig Club initiates its new members with a series of colorful ceremonies held during "Hell Week." The final ceremonies for the pledges occur up in Idyllwild at the Lodge. "Hell Week" is considered to be one of the gayest and funniest of all the Academy experiences, and this year was certainly no exception to the rule.

The stage crew of the Masque and Wig has had a most difficult job this year, for besides the important job of handling all the props for the stage and the lighting effects, they also had to prepare and paint the set for the production of "Arsenic and Old Lace," which really was an immense task for them, but under the expert guidance of Tec. Crans, they were able to erect a much-complimented set. Without the work of the stage crew, the production of the plays would be virtually impossible.

The following boys comprised the stage crew for this year: Arris Passmore, James Cole, Jerry Burgess, Craig Wylie and David Goodrich. Paul Lacey was in charge of the lighting this year.

The boy players presented a short play during Vaudeville Night called "A Boy Is King." Mrs. Hays directed it and they turned in a very fine performance, which was liked and enjoyed by all who were present.

The cast included: Taylor, Dubroth, Rainier, Hartt, Cone, Williams, Durham and Funk.

Another year is over and with it another season of the Academy Chapter of the National Thespians Society and also the Masque and Wig Club of 1953-54. The honor group of the Masque and Wig is the Thespian Chapter. Our Chapter ranks with the best dramatic clubs in the entire nation, for it has often won national honors and commendations from the National Headquarters of the Society. This year, Ed. Peterson was elected President; Joel Goodrich, Vice-President; Jane Dick, Secretary, and Bruce Fisher, Treasurer.

In 1925 the Masque and Wig Club was founded by Mrs. W. C. Atkinson. It was the original dramatics club of the Academy, and its record of success cannot be equaled by any other High School organization on the Coast. Officers for this year are: Arris Passmore, President; Ed Peterson, Vice-President; M. Tutin, Secretary; and Sam Weaver, Business Manager.

This year's season started out with the hilarious comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace." Then in February, it presented its usual vaudeville show, and after that came the Pasadena Contest play, "Just Till Morning." Another success is almost certainly assured in the Commencement play, another comedy called "Professor, How Could You?"

Special thanks should be given to Mrs. Ruby Hays, who is the sponsor of the club and its very capable director.

national thespians

"arsenic and old lace"

The Masque and Wig Players started out this year by producing the extremely funny comedy called "Arsenic and Old Lace," written by Russell Crouse and Howard Lindsay.

The leading roles were mainly character parts. The characters of the two old Brewster sisters were ably portrayed by Jane Dick and Eleanor Mankin. Peter Burke turned in a hair-raising performance as Jonathan Brewster, the murdering and slightly mad nephew, and everyone in the audience breathed a sigh of relief when he was finally knocked out by the policeman (Keith Henderson), and collapsed flat upon his face in a most convincing manner.

Tec Crans characterization of the German doctor was excellent, and Bruce Fisher brought forth many laughs as the quite insane but harmless nephew, Teddy, who fancied that he was Theodore Roosevelt. The one straight male lead was played by Jim DeLisle, and other supporting roles were taken by Dolores Davis, Arris Passmore, Rod Fuller, Keith Henderson, Bennett Curland, Ike McElvany, Ed Peterson, and Joe Burger.

The play concerns murder, to be exact, the murders of twenty-five persons in all! It is filled with hilarious situations and also has the story of a romance running through it.

Thanks to Mrs. Ruby Hays and her untiring work as the producer and director, this play was acclaimed to be one of the best that the Academy has ever presented.

Special credits should be given to Tec Crans, Craig Wiley, Jim Cole and Jerry Burgess, who spent many hours painting and preparing the handsome set required for "Arsenic and Old Lace."

christmas play

"just till morning"

For the second time, in March, Mrs. Ruby Hays took the Masque and Wig Players to Pasadena to take part in the One Act Play Contest at the Playhouse. This year her entry was called "Just Till Morning," a heart-warming play written by Thomas A. Langdon, which won the second highest honor given at the Playhouse, known as the Excellence Award.

Ed Peterson in the exacting role of Chick Dugan, a convict, acted with high emotional quality and understanding. Bruce Fisher played the difficult part of Turk McIntyre, another convict, and his performance was indeed excellent and very convincing. The Voice of the Christ was spoken quietly and with great dignity by Jim DeLisle. Other roles were taken by Joe Burger and Keith Henderson.

Special credit should be given to Ed Peterson, as his outstanding performance brought tears to the eyes of many people in the audience. A vote of thanks goes to Mrs. Hays for her splendid direction of "Just Till Morning," for without her patience and understanding, the production of such a play would have been impossible. Another vote of thanks belongs also to the stage crew, whose smooth handling of the scenery and props was a very important factor in the indubitable success of this play.

Scenes from Pasadena Playhouse Tuornament play "Just 'til Morning" showing E. Peterson and B. Fisher as Prisoners, J. Burger as the chaplain, K. Henderson as the prison guard, and a beam of light representing Jesus Christ with J. DeLisle as the "voice" of Jesus.

Three views of formal dances held at the Academy Gymnasium where the important balls are held.

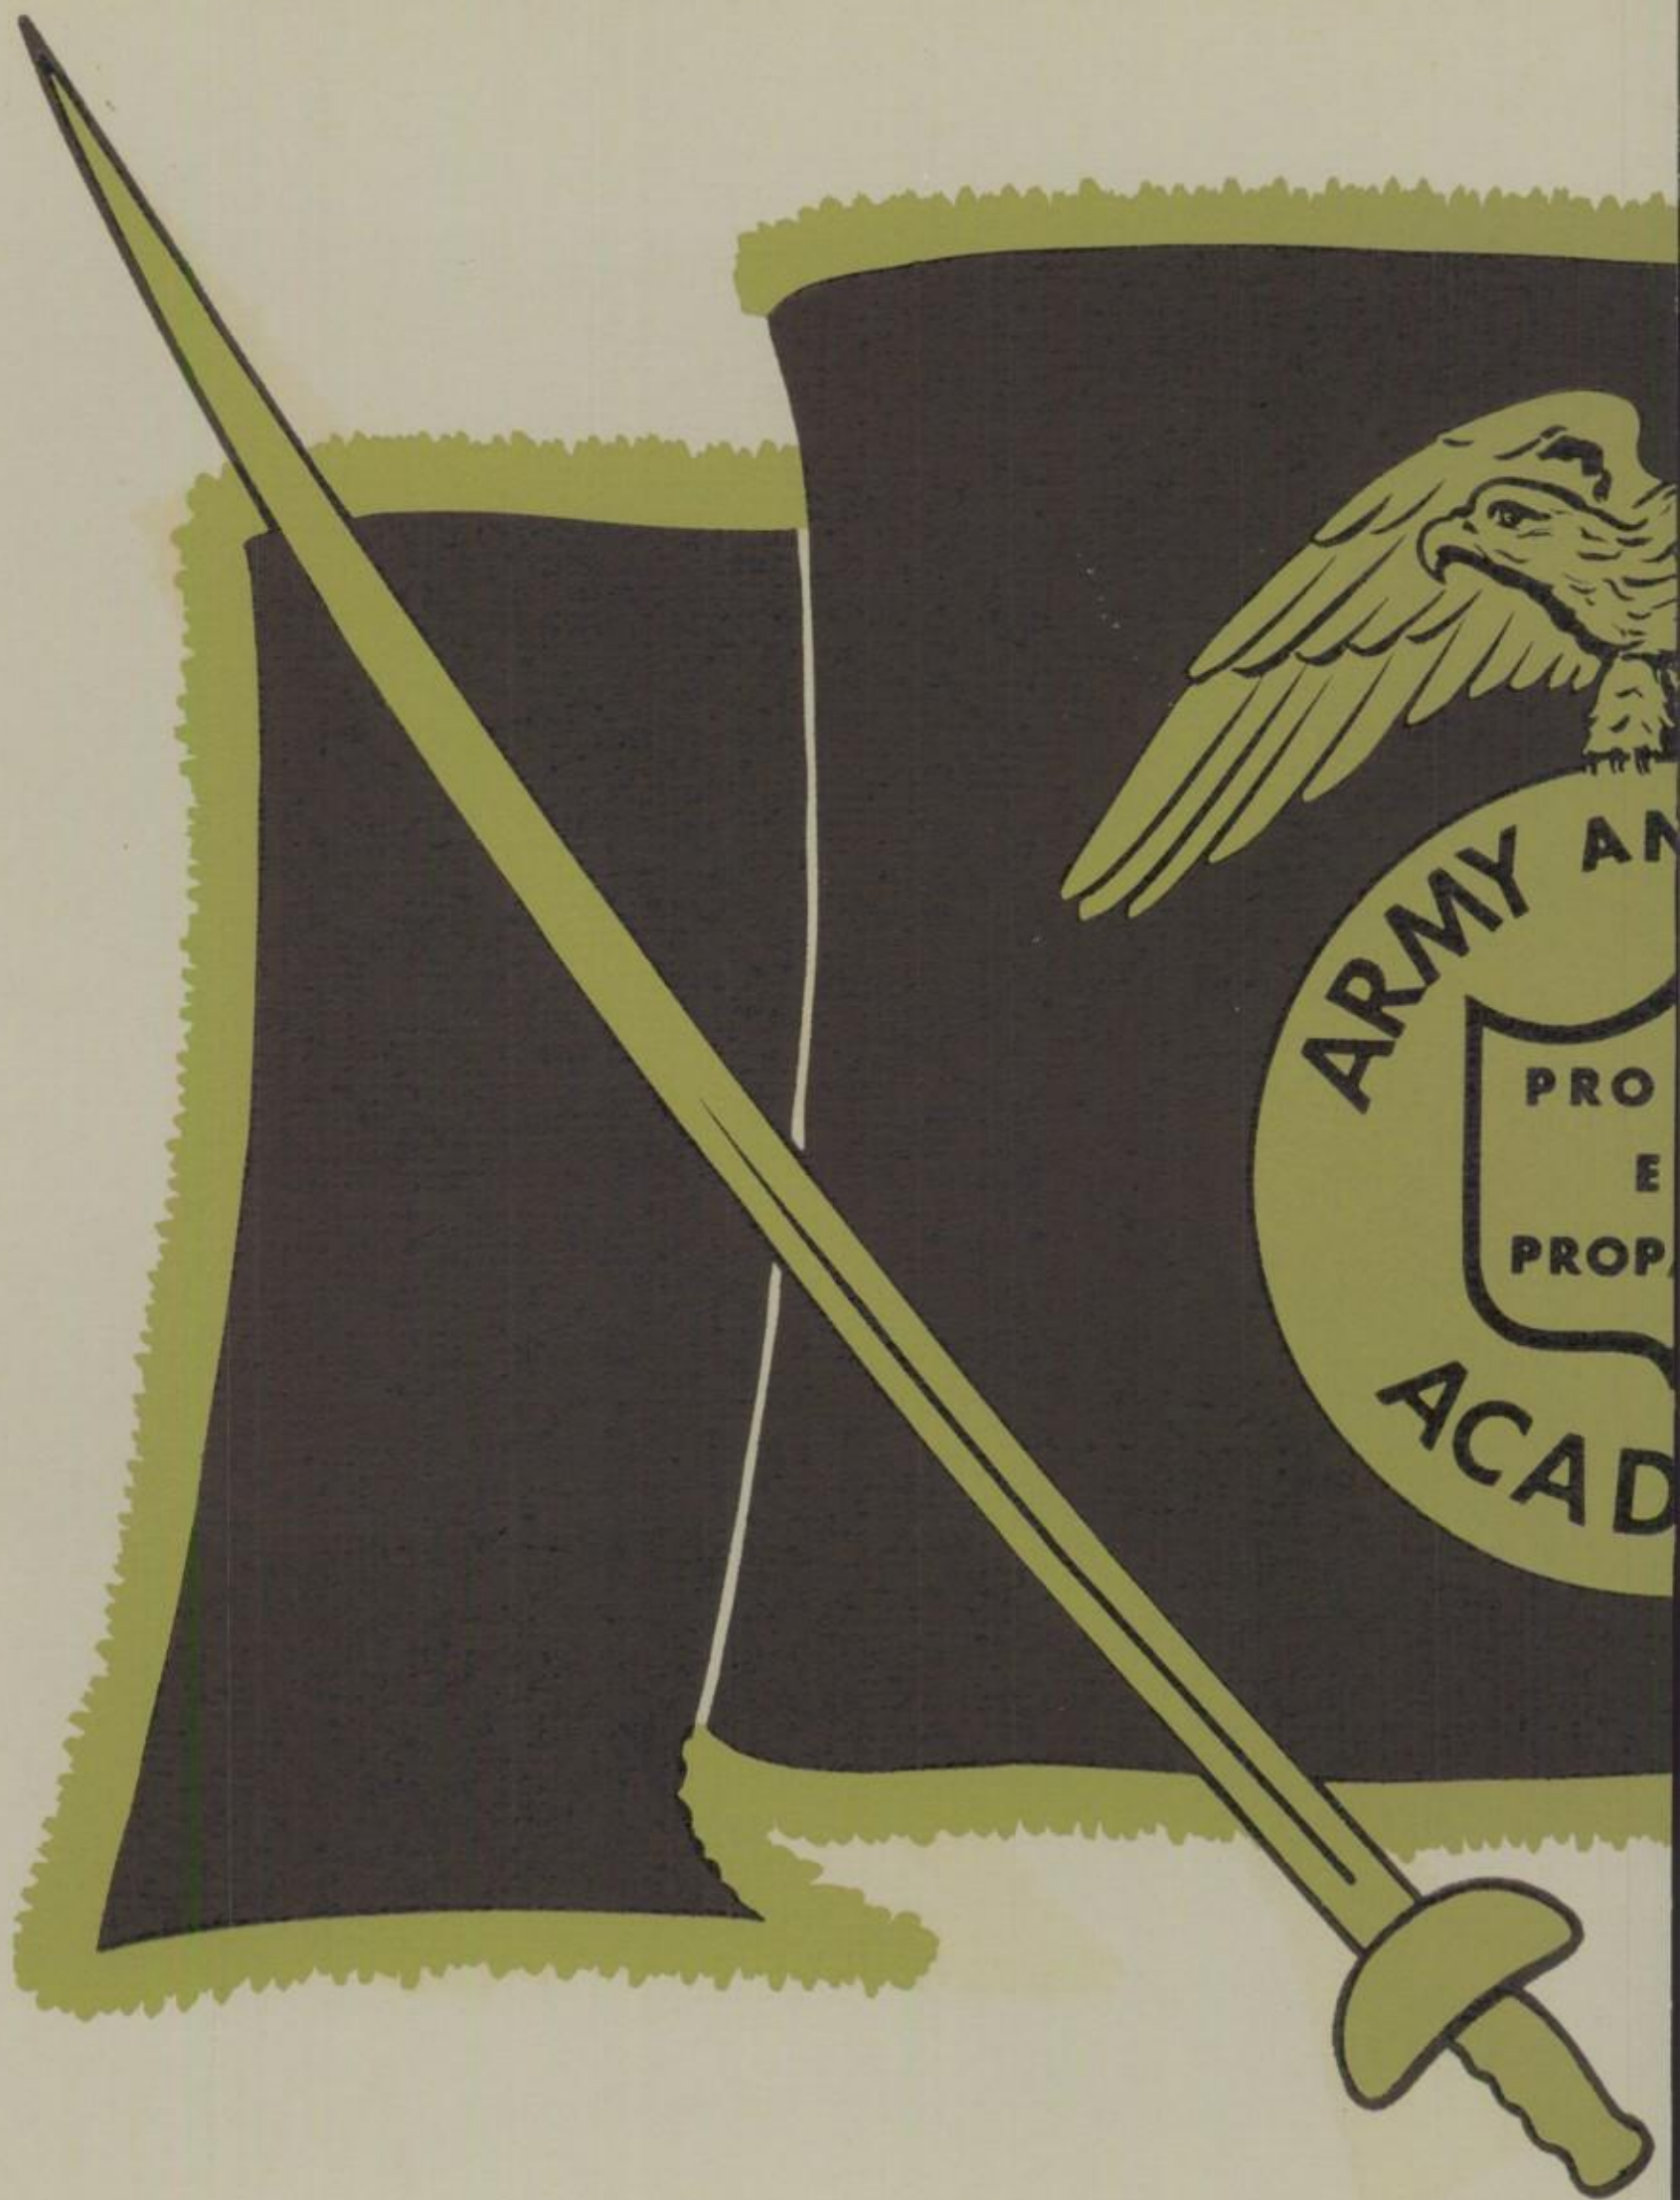

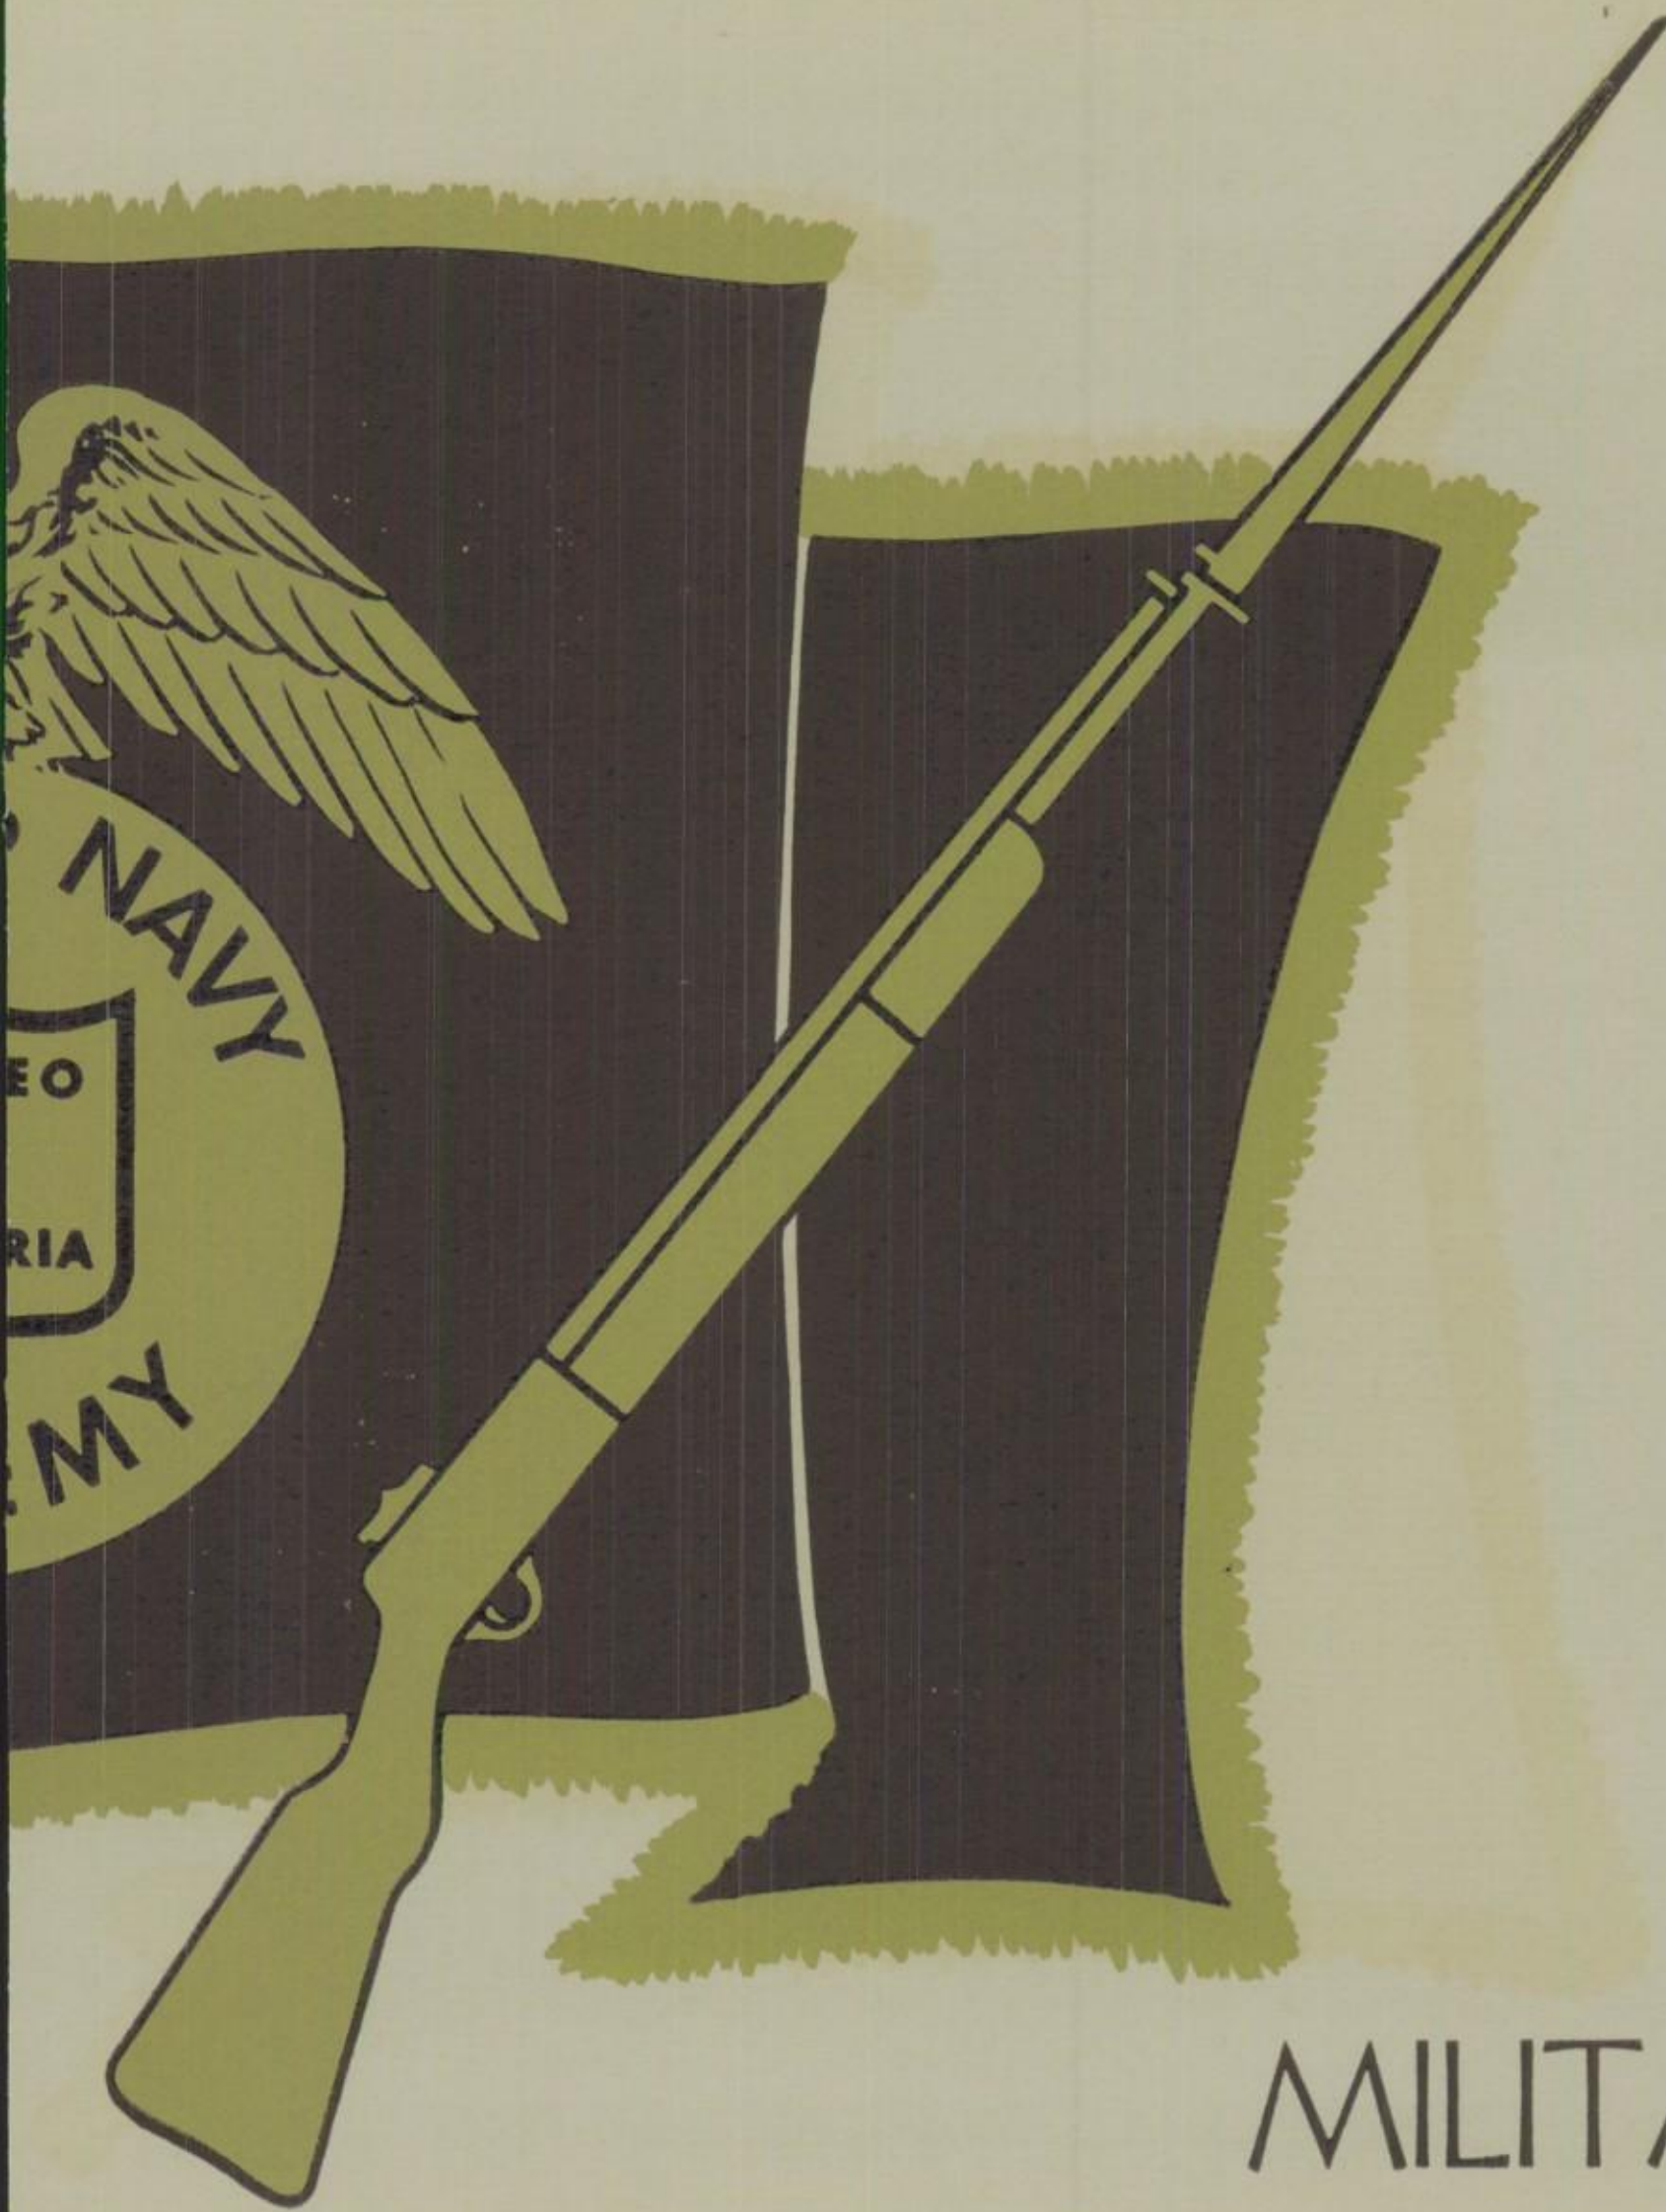

The Social Season each year is opened by the formal military ball known as "The President's Reception." It is always a very colorful affair which remains in a Cadet's memory for a long time afterward. The Christmas Dance is the next one on the Calendar, and a large pine tree was, as usual, the chief decoration and source of interest as it is always beautifully decorated, and the colorful gifts from the Cadets for their girls are piled around its base. During Springtime two dances are held, one is the Valentine Dance and the other, "The Junior Hop." Beautiful spring flowers and gaily colored streamers lent beauty and interest to "the Hop." This dance was enjoyed tremendously by the whole Cadet Corps. The last formal of the year will be the "Senior Prom" and by the look of the plans that are afoot, it promises to be the nicest one ever held at the Academy.

First row, left to right: Capt. A. Bennett, Maj. S. Wood, W. H. Armstrong PMS&T, C. L. Hopkins, assistant PMS&T, Capt. B. Fisher, Capt. S. Weaver. Second row: Capt. C. Linville, Capt. E. Peterson, Capt. A. Passmore, 1st Lt. G. Kenaston, 1st Lt. F. Heinz, 1st Lt. L. Mann. Third row: Capt. I. McElvany, 1st Lt. B. Fuller, 2nd Lt. J. DeLisle, 2nd Lt. P. Burke, 2nd Lt. T. Crans, 1st Lt. H. Cornforth, 1st Lt. W. Brander.

Assembled on the steps of the Administration Building are the leaders of the Academy. Whether it be on the drill field or in the R.O.T.C. classroom the responsibility of enforcing the regulations of the Military Department rest upon the shoulders of these select officers. They have shown great efficiency in coordinating the Battalion into a great cohesive unit. They, too, have led the Academy in Athletics and Academics. Graduation will see the majority of these officers leave but we are sure that the junior officers of today will be able to carry on as the senior officers of tomorrow and do a splendid job as well.

The Professor of Military Science and Tactics, Colonel W. H. Armstrong, and Captain C. L. Hopkins, Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics, are pictured here with Cadet Major Wood and the staff of cadet officers who comprise the battlaion staff. It is this staff that coordinates the duties of the different companies and platoons and welds the battalion into a cohesive unit. With the staff, too, are the officers in charge of the Armory and those who assist Colonel Armstrong, Captain Hopkins, and Cadet Major Wood in the discharge of their duties.

Next to the cadet officers are the non-commissioned officers of the Cadet Corps. These cadets help the officers in enforcing the rules and regulations of the Academy. They are the backbone of the school's disciplinary system and the officers of tomorrow.

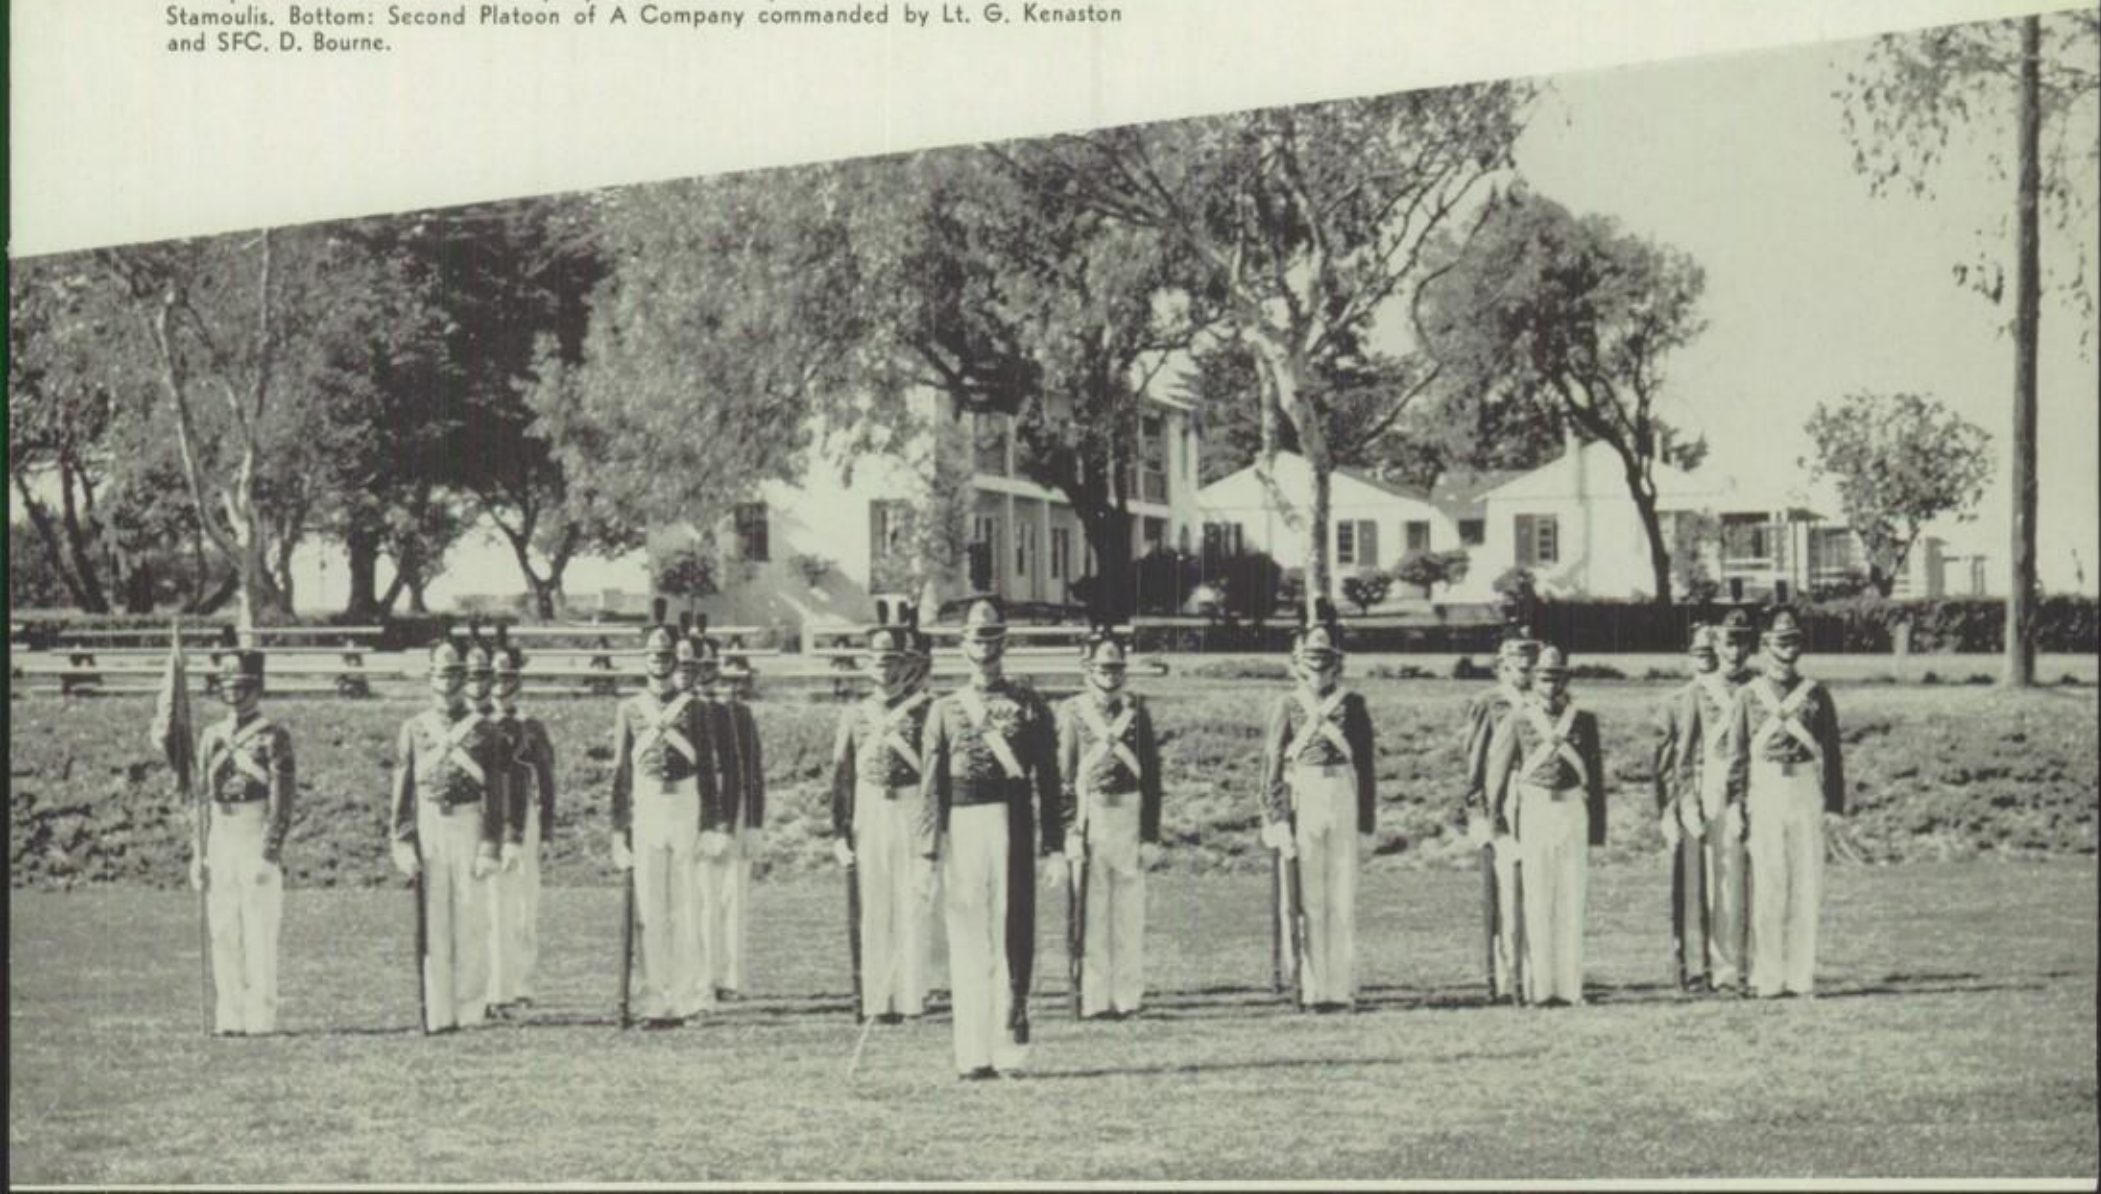

"a" company

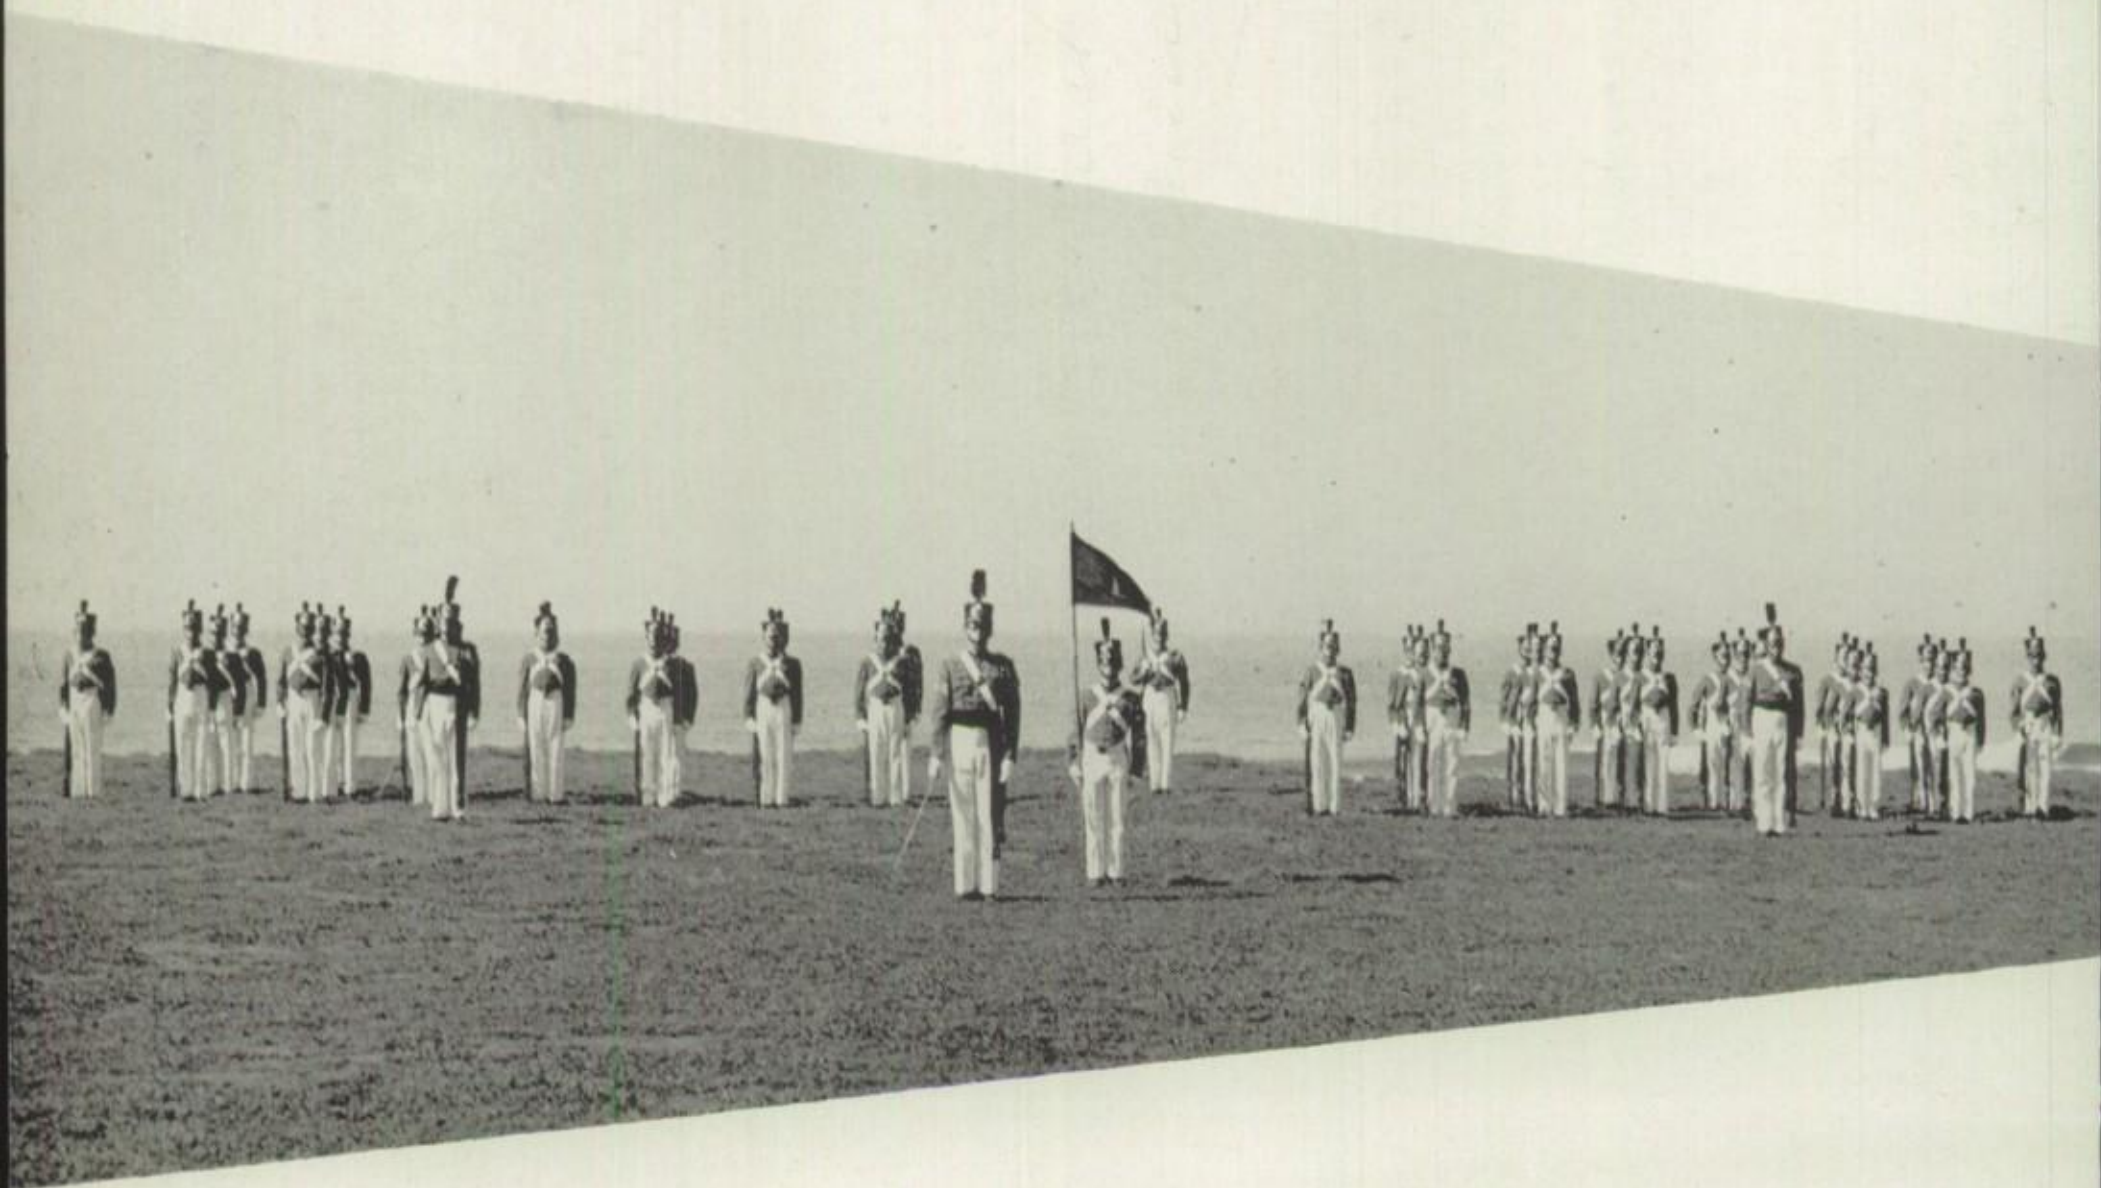

This year "A" Company was under the military guidance of Cadet Captain Arnold Bennett and his platoon leaders, Lieutenant Cornforth and Lieutenant Kenaston. They have done an excellent job in bringing about the high standards of the company and have made an envied record on the Parade Grounds. These officers, also, have helped maintain a high "Esprit de Corps" within the Battalion. It is from this company that most of next year's officers will emerge to lead the Academy on to even higher goals.

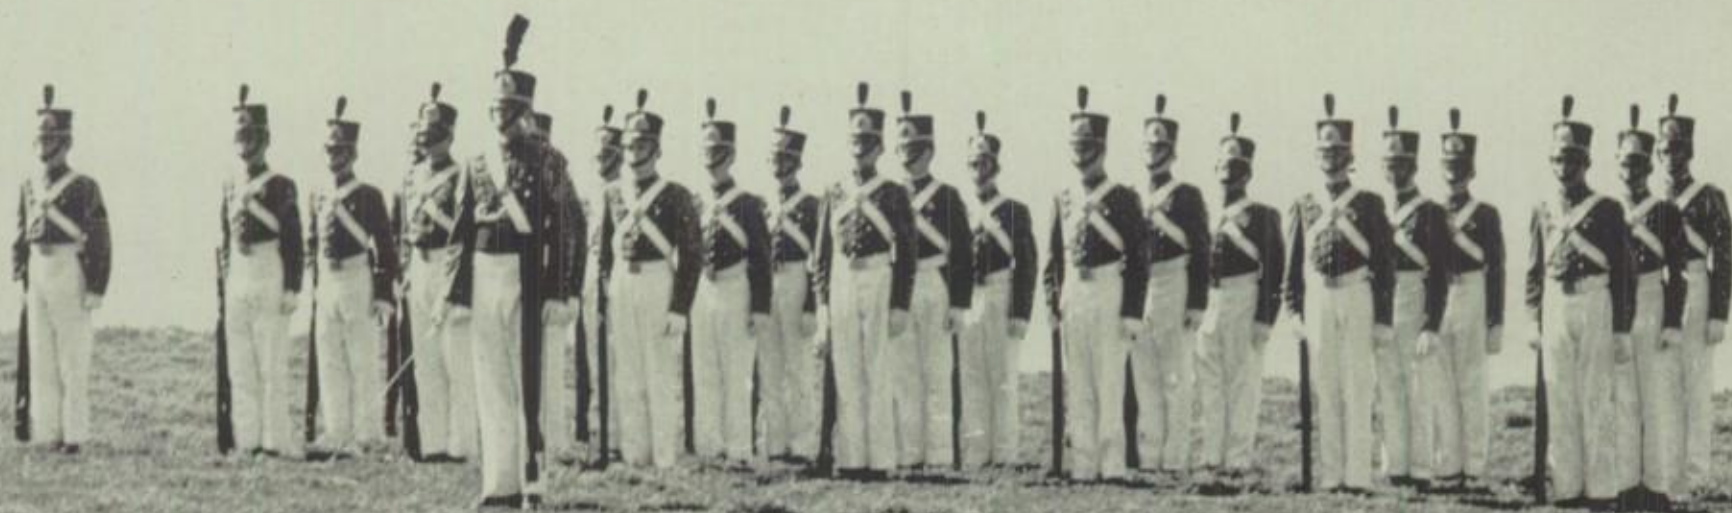

Top: First Platoon of A Company commanded by Lt. H. Cornforth and SFC N. Stamoulis. Bottom: Second Platoon of A Company commanded by Lt. G. Kenaston and SFC. D. Bourne.

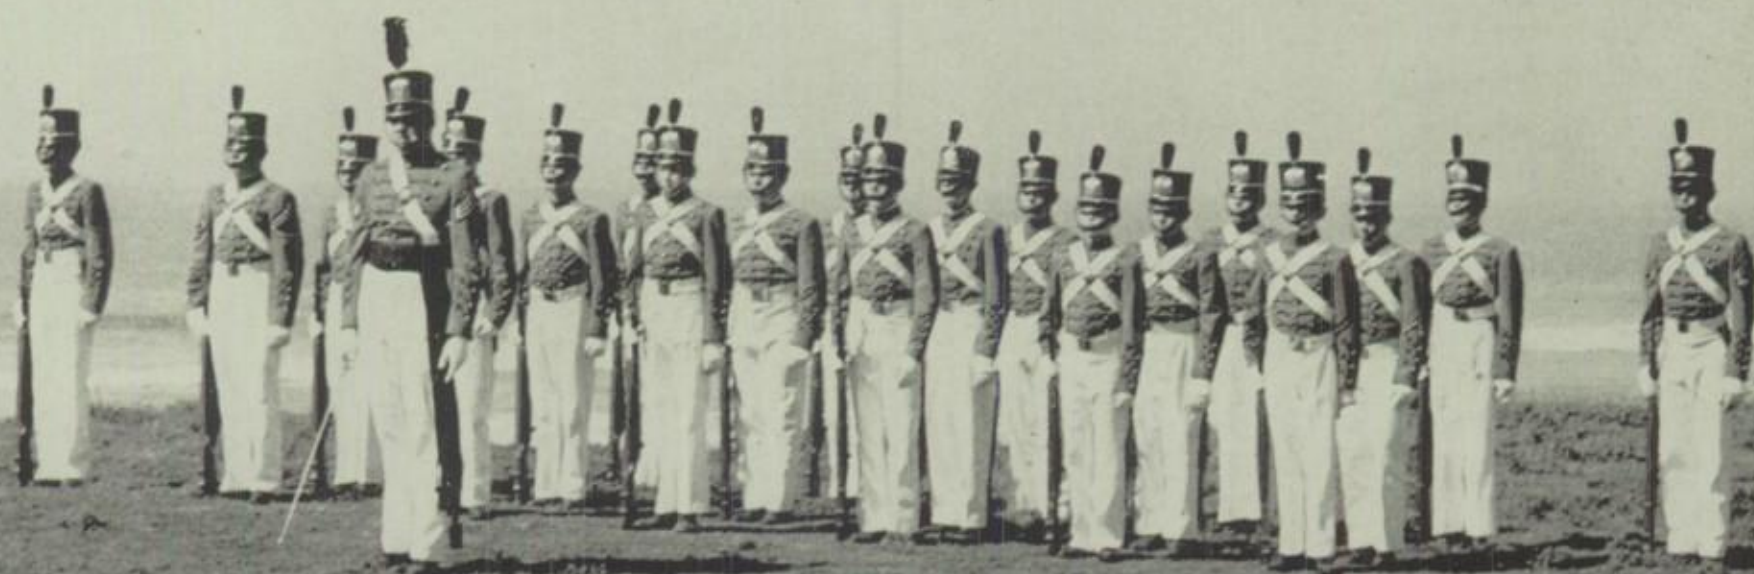

"b" company

"B" Company is composed mostly of underclassmen. These Cadets were under the very able command of Cadet Captain Ed. Peterson and his two platoon leaders, Lieutenant Heinz and Lieutenant Brander. This company has come a long way since the beginning of the school year and now they are even challenging the military supremacy of "A" Company on the Parade Ground as well as off it. Lieutenant Heinz and Lieutenant Brander have done much to keep high, not only the military standards of the company, but the morale as well.

Top: First Platoon commanded by Lt. F. Heinz and SFC J. Burger. Bottom: Second Platoon commanded by Lt. W. Brander and SFC Galindo.

"c" company on parade

"C" Company is composed of the younger cadets of the Academy. These boys drill and perform in the same manner as do all the other units of the Academy. This year "C" Company was under the command of Cadet Captain A. Passmore and Cadet Lieutenant R. Gustafson. Captain Brookhart was in charge of the drilling of these cadets and he gave them their first taste of military life. Captain Harold Moses, Commandant of the Lower School, was in charge of the military activities of the entire Lower School. Year after year, Captain Moses has done an outstanding job in the training of his young charges. The Junior School officers this year were David Cone, Michael Lloyd, and Robin Durham.

Capt. Harold Moses
Commandant of the Lower School

"c" company

"Hail and farewell! Hail to the college freshmen of tomorrow, and farewell to the backbone and leadership of the battalion during the past year. It is quite probable that the future holds for each of you some tour of duty in one of the four services. Whether you decide to make a career of the service, or whether you find that your desires, talents, and abilities lead you into other fields, I am confident that the principles of leadership you have so admirably and ably demonstrated here will serve you well. God-speed and good wishes and a hearty 'Well Done'."

military department

"It gives me great pleasure to have this opportunity to extend my congratulations to the Class of 1954. You have given an excellent account of yourselves in all phases of school activities. It is sincerely hoped that the Military Department has contributed something of value to your background, something that will be of use to you in your future endeavors. None of us can foresee what the future holds, but it is my sincere wish that you will find unbounded success and happiness."

Capt. C. L. Hopkins

Kneeling: D. Goodrich, G. Pettett.

Cadet Captain Chuck Linville and his crew were responsible for the difficult job of running the Armory and the Rifle Range. The care and accounting of valuable government property falls on the shoulders of these cadets.

*Good Luck
Capt Trainer*

For many years, Captain T. Trainer has been the night guard officer in complete charge of the Academy during those hours. One of his duties is to inspect the Cadet quarters during the night, and thanks to his diligent and watchful care, the school has been spared many night accidents.

Thanks to Colonel Armstrong and Captain Hopkins, the marksmanship this year received considerable emphasis. The team entered the William Randolph Hearst Competition and the Sixth Army Match, doing quite well in both of them.

Special credit should go to S. Weaver, B. Fisher, B. Brander, D. Goodrich and W. Ingram, who sparked the Academy Rifle Team this year.

r i f l e t e a m

After each banquet held in the Academy Mess Hall, a burst of applause hails Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hollis. This applause, in its simple way, is our means of congratulating the Hollis' on their very excellent cooking. For twenty years it has been their custom to serve good wholesome meals to the Cadet Corps, and their cooking is matched only by their warm personalities and kindly ways.

One of the first and "must" activities of the cadets and their partners at each of the dances is to hurry over and inspect the truly magnificent cakes prepared by Dick Hollis, and to sample the wonderful brownies and other refreshments provided by Mrs. Hollis.

The Adjutant of 1954 wishes to thank the Hollis' for doing such a very fine job for so many years.

The staff of the Culinary Department exclusive of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis, includes the following members: Jessie Van Winkle, George C. Davis, Domingo Hernandez, Johnny Chavarria, and Theodore Keith.

Ma. Hollis, G. Davis, J. Chavarria, D. Hernandez. Second row: H. Cox, D. Hollis

The Campus this year has been graced by the addition of two new buildings, one being Major Freebern's office, and the other, the new Band Room. George Prudhomme and Bill Reinke of the Maintenance Crew built these two new edifices.

These are just two of the tasks undertaken by these men and the rest of the people in their department; for the job of keeping up our beautiful Campus is a never-ending one: cleaning classrooms, painting, masonry work, gardening, and many more tasks such as these.

A Salute to our Patrons

The Class of 1954, the Staff of the Adjutant and the Corps of Cadets of Army and Navy Academy are deeply grateful for the kindness and generosity of the patrons listed below, for their contributions made possible The Adjutant of 1954. We are sending a complimentary copy of our year-book, with our thanks, to The Adjutant patrons.

The atomic bomb is no slouch as a weapon, but it still runs a poor second to that engine of destruction, the American motor car. Next time you push your starter button, think what you're firing up. There are so many ways to run our automobiles into catastrophic expense that it's a wonder we don't all go back to our bicycles. Maybe you haven't snapped off a fireplug lately. Well, you've missed not only a tall and lovely geyser, but also an even taller damage suit, the City of San Diego vs. You. Busted hydrants can waste millions of gallons of water and undermine acres of paving . . . for you to pay for. SURE, you carry Auto Insurance . . . but enough, and the right kind?

"Only the Best Fruits and Vegetables for Our Customers"

It has been a long time, but we have made a lot of good friends, and through the years we have found

"The recollection of Quality remains long after the price is forgotten"
